economically disadvantaged and those in the most disadvantaged schools However educational system features including tracking free school choice and school autonomy are important driving factors of the differences between schools As such systems have the tools to curb between school differences in resistance Previous research turns resistance into a problem of individual students However if school or system features engender resistance to school policy initiatives directed at individual students may solve the problem only partially Notices of the American Mathematical Society American Mathematical Society,1975 Contains articles of significant interest to mathematicians including reports on current mathematical research Handbook of the Sociology of Education in the 21st Century Barbara Schneider,2018-10-10 This handbook unifies access and opportunity two key concepts of sociology of education throughout its 25 chapters It explores today s populations rarely noticed such as undocumented students first generation college students and LGBTQs and emphasizing the intersectionality of gender race ethnicity and social class Sociologists often center their work on the sources and consequences of inequality This handbook while reviewing many of these explanations takes a different approach concentrating instead on what needs to be accomplished to reduce inequality A special section is devoted to new methodological work for studying social systems including network analyses and school and teacher effects Additionally the book explores the changing landscape of higher education institutions their respective populations and how labor market opportunities are enhanced or impeded by differing postsecondary education pathways Written by leading sociologists and rising stars in the field each of the chapters is embedded in theory but contemporary and futuristic in its implications This Handbook serves as a blueprint for identifying new work for sociologists of education and other scholars and policymakers trying to understand many of the problems of inequality in education and what is needed to address them Community and Junior College Journal ,1972 Resources in Education ,1996
