

AFRICAN THEOLOGY: Its History, Dynamics, Scope and Future

Paul Bowers

AFRICAN THEOLOGY

The term "African Theology" commonly refers to the lively conversation within the African Christian community that, beginning early in the 1960s and increasing unabated to the present, seeks to address the intellectual and theological issues which concern that community. This conversation has attracted interest and significance owing not least to the rapid growth of the Christian community in Africa, which is now the majority faith in large portions of the continent and is apparently set to become a principal centre of world Christianity.

The diversity of the Christian community in Africa, and of its theological practitioners, has produced numerous divergent

Dr. Paul Bowers has taught in theological education in Africa since 1968. He has also been involved with the Accrediting Council for Theological Education in Africa (ACTEA) since 1976, with ACT since 1980 and with SouthAsia for Africa since 1996. Currently he is the International Administrator of the International Council for Evangelical Theological Education (ICETE). Dr. Bowers holds a PhD in biblical studies from the University of Cambridge in England. This article on "African Theology" appeared last year in the revised edition of the widely used Evangelical Dictionary of Theology edited by Walter A. Elwell (2nd edition, Grand Rapids: Baker Book House, 2001), under the title, "African Theology", and is reprinted here (with minor corrections) by permission of the publisher, Baker Book House (PO Box 6187, Grand Rapids, MI 49516, USA).

Cunningham, 2023-08-01 The Routledge Companion to John Wesley provides an overview of the work and ideas of one of the principal founders of Methodism John Wesley 1703-91 Wesley remains highly influential especially within the worldwide Methodist movement of some eighty million people As a preacher and religious reformer his efforts led to the rise of a global Protestant movement but the wide ranging topics addressed in his writings also suggest a mind steeped in the intellectual developments of the North Atlantic early modern world His numerous publications cover not only theology but ethics history aesthetics politics human rights health and wellbeing cosmology and ecology This volume places Wesley within his eighteenth century context analyzes his contribution to thought across his multiple interests and assesses his continuing relevance today It contains essays by an international team of scholars drawn from within the Methodist tradition and beyond This is a valuable reference particularly for scholars of Methodist Studies theology church history and religious history

Rediscovering Jesus in Our Places Elia Shabani Mligo, 2020-05-28 The question of contextual theology and its relevance to Africa in this time of globalization whereby there are rampant uncontrolled changes in cultures technologies economic policies and even people's religious lives is very urgent How is contextual theology relevant in the ever changing contexts of the church in Africa Indeed there are a number of challenges which contextual theology faces within the church in Africa which need to be addressed contextually Some such challenges include poverty rampant violence homosexuality alcoholism the resurgence of prosperity gospel materialistic prophets and incurable illnesses like Ebola HIV and AIDS and the current coronavirus COVID 19 However which context in Africa Context in Africa as in other parts of the world is always in flux it is complex and fluid There is no permanent context The experience of Jesus in such a changing context needs to be rediscovered depending on what transpires in each particular place at a particular time This book addresses some of the overarching challenges that face contextual theology and how such challenges should be addressed by the church in Africa in contemporary ever changing context for it to be relevant in Africa It also highlights the need to move from liberation and inculturation theologies to reconstruction theology in dealing with the challenges of the current church Hence the book is important to students and scholars engaging in practical systematic biblical and contextual theologies in all their branches

Mennonites and Post-Colonial African Studies John M. Janzen, Harold F. Miller, John C. Yoder, 2021-02-28 This book examines the evolution of post colonial African Studies through the eyes of Africanists from the Anabaptist Mennonite and Church of the Brethren community The book chronicles the lives of twenty two academics and practitioners whose work spans from the immediate post colonial period in the 1960s to the present day a period in which decolonization and development have dominated scholarly and practitioner debate Reflecting the values and perspectives they shared with the Mennonite Central Committee and other church sponsored organizations the authors consider their own personal journeys and professional careers the power of the prevailing scholarly paradigms they encountered and the realities of post colonial Africa Coming initially from Anabaptist service programs the authors ultimately made wider contributions to comparative religion church leadership literature music political science history anthropology economics and banking health and healing public health extension education and community development The personal histories and reflections of the authors provide an important glimpse into the intellectual and cultural perspectives that shaped the work of Africanist scholars and practitioners in the post colonial period The book reminds us that the work of every Africanist is shaped by their own life stories

Re-Imaging Modernity Gregg A. Okesson, 2012-10-03 This is a book about Christianity in one particular region in Kenya It walks into churches listens to sermons dances to music and interviews the people sitting in the pews all with the aim of understanding how spiritual power enables these churches to function as agents within their contemporary society Ecclesiastical communities in Africa draw upon divine power in order to engage in modernity related topics Humans are not unresponsive to global flows of meaning they are integrative agents who fashion their world by living in it The kind of modernity arising from these churches does not blindly follow Western forms but flows from its own internal logic in which spiritual power occupies central hermeneutical function Theological resources contribute to the formation of sociological expressions Divine power pertains directly to human constructs which then allows the churches to actively image God for the development of unique forms of modernity arising on the continent

Decolonising Science, Technology, Engineering and

Mathematics (STEM) in an Age of Technocolonialism Artwell Nhemachena, Nokuthula Hlabangane, 2020-02-14 Positing the notions of coloniality of ignorance and geopolitics of ignorance as central to coloniality and colonisation this book examines how colonialists socially produced ignorance among colonised indigenous peoples so as to render them docile and manageable Dismissing colonial descriptions of indigenous people as savages illiterate irrational prelogical mystical primitive barbaric and backward the book argues that imperialists colonialists contrived geopolitics of ignorance wherein indigenous regions were forced to become ignorant hence containable and manageable in the imperial world Questioning the provenance of modernist epistemologies the book asks why Eurocentric scholars only contest the provenance of indigenous knowledges artefacts and scientific collections Interrogating why empire sponsors the decolonisation of universities epistemologies in indigenous territories while resisting the repatriation restitution of indigenous artefacts the book also wonders why Westerners who still retain indigenous artefacts skulls and skeletons in their museums universities and private collections do not consider such artefacts and skulls to be colonising them as well The book is valuable to scholars and activists in the fields of anthropology museums and heritage studies science and technology studies decoloniality policymaking education politics sociology and development studies

Byang Kato Aiah Dorkuh Foday-Khabenje, 2023-08-04 In this in depth study of the legacy of Byang Kato Dr Foday Khabenje traces his extraordinary life from a boyhood immersed in African traditional religion to his conversion to Christianity as a young man his education in Nigeria and abroad his global leadership within the evangelical church his tragic untimely death and the long lasting impact of his prophetic voice In the realm of African theology Kato is often remembered for the oppositional stance he took towards many of his contemporaries arguing passionately for the dangers of universalism and syncretism and urging the church to place the Bible at the heart of African Christianity Foday Khabenje engages these debates while demonstrating that Kato's contributions to the African church cannot be reduced to polemics His biblical hermeneutics perspectives on African Christian identity and tireless work for the expansion of theological education in Africa are each explored and celebrated along with their implications for the contemporary church in Africa and beyond While nearly fifty years have passed since Kato's death his legacy is still as relevant as ever for a church facing the challenges of secularism and pluralism in the twenty first century In an age that seeks to de-emphasize the uniqueness of Christ Kato's testimony of the radical transformation offered by authentic biblical Christianity is good news for us all

The Anglican Communion at a Crossroads Christopher Craig Brittain, Andrew McKinnon, 2018-04-17 Worldwide debates over issues of sexuality and gender have come to a head in recent years in mainline and evangelical churches with the Anglican Communion a worldwide network of churches that trace their practice to Canterbury and claim some 85 million members among the most publicly visible sites of contestation This thorough and compelling analysis of the conflicts within the Communion argues that they are symptoms of long simmering issues that must be addressed when Anglican bishops and archbishops meet at the 2020 Lambeth Conference To many the disagreements over such issues as LGBTQ clergy same sex marriage and women's ordination suggest an insurmountable crisis facing Anglicans one that may ultimately end the Communion Christopher Craig Brittain and Andrew McKinnon argue otherwise Drawing on extensive empirical research and interviews with influential Anglican leaders they show how these struggles stem from a complex interplay of factors notably the forces and effects of globalization new communications technology and previous decisions made by the Communion In clarifying both the theological arguments and social forces at play as the bishops and primates of the Anglican Communion prepare to set the Church's course for the next decade Brittain and McKinnon combine sociological and theological methodologies to provide both a nuanced portrait of Anglicanism in a transnational age and a primer on the issues with which the Lambeth Conference will wrestle Insightful informative and thought provoking The Anglican Communion at a Crossroads is an invaluable resource for understanding the debates taking place in this worldwide community Those interested in Anglicanism sexuality and the Christian tradition the sociology of religion and the evolving relationship between World Christianity and churches in the Global North will find it indispensable
