Greetings,

We are writing today requesting your help to make our Centennial Annual Fund Campaign a success. Your tax-deductible donation of $100, $250, $500 or more will help us preserve Filoli's historic past, enhance the present, and focus on innovations that prepare for the future.

A century ago, the remarkable story of Filoli began. The Bourn family (1913 to 1950) acquired the land and created a grand country estate. The Roth family (1957 to 1975) continued the story by living in and nurturing the House and further developing the Gardens. The Roth's generosity launched a third era by transferring Filoli to the National Trust for Historic Preservation. During its over 40 years in partnership with the National Trust, Filoli has been managed by the Filoli Center, a dedicated nonprofit organization supported by a generous community of donors and volunteers.

Today we continue to celebrate the past by providing numerous opportunities for learning and participation. We celebrate Filoli's Centennial over three years honoring each part of the estate, the Land, the House, and the Gardens.

With your support, in 2017 we will connect more people to these ways to Filoli.

Please support the continued care of Filoli today and invest in the future. You can make a donation online at www.filoli.org/donate or mail a check in the enclosed envelope.

Sincerely,

Denise Colson
President, Filoli Governing Board

Heidi Brown
President, Friends of Filoli

P. S. Your donation will be a great way to welcome Filoli's new Executive Director Kara Newport.
