Psychiatry by Ten Teachers Nisha Dogra, Brian Lunn, Stephen Cooper, 2017-06-30 English in Southeast Asia and ASEAN Azirah Hashim, Gerhard Leitner, 2020-11-16 English in Southeast Asia and ASEAN embeds English in its various regional Southeast Asian and political ASEAN language habitats Addressing the history developmental stages and contacts with other languages it provides in depth information on the region and its political organization In doing so it analyzes the geo political division of the region between former Anglophone and non Anglophone colonies and shows that this distinction has led to considerable differences in the status and texture of English This analysis includes the role and impact of American English in mainland and maritime Southeast Asia to highlight the linguistic properties of English and its linguistic and sociopolitical development English used in specific domains language policies and concludes with the future of English and future challenges This book therefore provides an integrative survey of the various roles of English in ASEAN member states and studies the transformation of entire language habitats including the major national and regional languages that participate in this process It also explains how new societies emerge with their conflicting identities and their aspirations to act regionally or even globally and is a valuable resource for scholars and students in the fields of World Englishes Asian Studies and those interested in language contact policy and planning

Media Literacy in Action Renee Hobbs, 2024-10-14 There s never been a more important time for students to develop media literacy competencies When students ask critical questions about the media they consume they develop fundamental knowledge and critical thinking skills that prepare them for life work and meaningful citizenship Media Literacy in Action addresses learners who are simultaneously active as both creators and consumers of media messages At the same time the book recognizes that everyone is vulnerable to media influence because of our dependence on the instant gratification and feelings of connectedness that digital platforms provide To thrive in a media saturated society people need to ask critical questions about what we watch see listen to read and use This book gives students those tools Key features of the second edition Critical examination of AI technologies algorithmic personalization data privacy and surveillance and the increased global regulation of digital platforms Attention to media literacy for empowerment and protection Inquiry oriented approach to learning that cultivates intellectual curiosity and creative expression Full color presentation with figures and photos to increase student engagement Each chapter includes Media Literacy Trailblazers Profiles of key thinkers and their theories connect students with the discipline of media literacy Media Literacy DISCOURSE NEW Visual representations of media literacy theoretical principles help learners internalize the practice of asking critical questions as they respond to specific media examples Learning in Action NEW Summary and vocabulary sections combine with Analyze Create Reflect and Act activities to empower students to apply ideas from each chapter Supplemental Materials available at www.mlaction.com Students can review key ideas learn about more Media Literacy Trailblazers and watch videos aligned with each chapter Instructors can access a Teacher's Guide of best practices in class activities homework and projects Also available are chapter summaries lecture slides YouTube playlists and test materials

Measurement Invariance Rens Van De Schoot, Peter Schmidt, Alain De Beuckelaer, 2015-10-05 Multi item surveys are frequently used to study scores on latent factors like human values attitudes and behavior Such studies often include a comparison between specific groups of individuals either at one or multiple points in time If such latent factor means are to be meaningfully compared the measurement structures including the latent factor and their survey items should be stable across groups and or over time that is invariant Recent developments in statistics have provided new analytical tools for assessing measurement invariance MI The aim of this special issue is to provide a forum for a discussion of MI covering some crucial themes 1 ways to assess and deal with measurement non invariance 2 Bayesian and IRT methods employing the concept of approximate measurement invariance and 3 new or adjusted approaches for testing MI to fit increasingly complex statistical models and specific characteristics of survey data The special issue started with a kick off meeting where all potential contributors shared ideas on potential papers This expert workshop was organized at Utrecht University in The Netherlands and was funded by the Netherlands Organization for Scientific Research NWO VENI 451 11 008 After the kick off meeting the authors submitted their papers all of which were reviewed by experts in the field The papers in the eBook are listed in alphabetical order but in the editorial the papers are introduced thematically Although it is impossible to cover all areas of relevant research in the field of MI papers in this eBook provide insight on important aspects of measurement invariance We hope that the discussions included in this special issue will stimulate further research on MI and facilitate further discussions to support
