Crawford, 2013-02-14 In Theology as Improvisation Nathan Crawford reimagines the possibilities for how theology thinks God within a postmodern world By engaging a number of thinkers in conversation he navigates the nature of thinking God in a postmodern world Reading Derrida and Ricoeur Eftichis Pirovolakis, 2010-02-16 Written in the aftermath of the deaths of the French philosophers Jacques Derrida 1930 2004 and Paul Ricoeur 1913 2005 this book is an important and innovative study of the contentious relation between deconstruction and hermeneutics Offering close readings of Derrida s and Ricoeur s writings on phenomenology psychoanalysis structuralist linguistics and Levinasian ethics Eftichis Pirovolakis introduces the motif of improbable encounters and explicates why the two thinkers may be said to be simultaneously close to each other and separated by an unbridgeable abyss Pirovolakis complicates any facile distinction between these movements which are two of the most influential streams of continental thought and questions a certain pathos with respect to the distance separating them Pirovolakis also translates Derrida s brief tribute to Ricoeur The Word Giving Naming Calling which appears here in English for the first time The book is essential reading for anyone immersed in continental philosophy or literary theory

Jacques Derrida and the Challenge of History Sean Gaston, 2018-11-23 This important new book argues that Jacques Derrida s work can be treated as the basis for a distinctive historiography The possibility of seeing Derrida not as a philosopher of language but as a philosopher of history has become more apparent with the recent publication of Derrida s 1964 1965 seminar Heidegger The Question of Being and History We now know that the problem of history was at the heart of Derrida s writing in the mid 1960s prior to the publication of his best known work Of Grammatology 1967 Arguing that Derrida s scholarship in the 1960s and early 1970s on historicism historicity and the problem of history can be treated as the basis for a philosophy of history Sean Gaston focuses on Derrida's work from the mid 1970s to the mid 1990s and his relentless questioning of context memory and narrative as the delineation of a deconstructive historiography The book raises a challenge for historians to think about both deconstruction and historiography arguing that contemporary philosophy can provide a basis for thinking about history in the name of a deconstructive historiography that is not incompatible with rigorous historical scholarship
