prompt always punctual her conversations were supremely eclectic she was extremely hospitable a great humanist who accorded equal respect to everyone young or old Despite several disagreements on intellectual matters my seven year long relationship with her was never spoilt at the personal level The essays included in this volume covering her multi faced personality her philosophy and her art have been collected over an extended period Some of them date back to about sixty years Most of the writers particularly Safder Meer Jilani Kamran Ibne Saeed M Salimur Rahman were well known critics from Pakistan many of who have passed on and most of these essays were published in well known newspapers These essays were entrusted to me during my 1992 visit to Pakistan by these writers Several Indian writers including M Asaduddin Nikhat Kazmi Shamim Hanafi Zafar Ahmad Naqvi and Navjot have been included here I am very grateful to Professor M Asaduddin for permitting me to republish his essay Most of these essays cover Qurratulain Hyder s fictional writing and enable better understanding of her works Hence I decided to publish them in book form and this gives me a huge sense of satisfaction I am very happy to add that Fatima Rizvi and Sufia Kidwai readily contributed their translated essays at my request These have added both variety and novelty to this volume of critical essays I hope this volume will be a very valuable text for Hyder scholars Jameel Akhtar Aligarh January 2025 Translated from Harf e Chand by Fatima Rizvi Education and Politics
