The Cambridge Companion to Modernist Culture Celia Marshik, 2015 This companion provides students and scholars alike with an interdisciplinary approach to literary modernism Through essays written on a range of cultural contexts this collection helps readers understand the significant changes in belief systems visual culture and pastimes that influenced and were influenced by the experimental literature published around 1890 1945 New Histories of Art in the Global Postwar Era Flavia Frigeri, Kristian Handberg, 2021-03-24 This book maps key moments in the history of postwar art from a global perspective The reader is introduced to a new globally oriented approach to art artists museums and movements of the postwar era 1945 70 Specifically this book bridges the gap between historical artistic centers such as Paris and New York and peripheral loci Through case studies previously unknown networks circulations divides and controversies are brought to light From the development of Ethiopian modernism to the showcase of Brazilian modernity this book provides readers with a new set of coordinates and a reassessment of well trodden art historical narratives around modernism This book will be of interest to scholars in art historiography art history exhibition and curatorial studies modern art and globalization

Conceptual Revolutions in Twentieth-Century Art David W. Galenson, 2009-09-28 Galenson combines social scientific methods with qualitative analysis to produce a new interpretation of modern art An Introduction to the Making of Western Art Susan L. Green, 2024-03-29 This book is the first introduction to Western art that not only considers how choice of materials can impact form but also how objects in different media can alter in appearance over time and the role of conservators in the preservation of our cultural heritage The first four chapters cover wall and easel paintings sculpture drawings and prints from the late Middle Ages to the present day They examine with numerous examples how these works have been produced how they might have been transformed and how efforts regarding their preservation can sometimes be misleading or result in controversy The final two chapters look at how photography new techniques and modern materials prompted innovative ways of creating art in the twentieth century and how the rapid expansion of technology in the twenty first century has led to a revolution in how artworks are constructed and seen generating specific challenges for collectors curators and conservators alike This book is primarily directed at undergraduates interested in art history museum studies and conservation but will also be of interest to a more general non specialist audience Hybridity in Early Modern Art Ashley Elston, Madeline Rislow, 2021-09-15 This collection of essays explores hybridity in early modern art through two primary lenses hybrid media and hybrid time The varied approaches in the volume to theories of hybridity reflect the increased presence in art historical scholarship of interdisciplinary frameworks that extend art historical inquiry beyond the single time or material The essays engage with what happens when an object is considered beyond the point of origin or as a legend of information the implications of the juxtaposition of disparate media how the meaning of an object alters over time and what the conspicuous use of out of date styles means for the patron artist and or viewer Essays examine both canonical and lesser known works produced by European artists in Italy northern Europe and colonial Peru ca 1400 1600 The book will be of interest to art historians visual culture historians and early modern historians The Transformation of Vernacular Expression in Early Modern Arts Joost Keizer, Todd Richardson, 2011-10-14 Including contributions by historians of early modern European art architecture and literature this book examines the transformative force of the vernacular over time and different regions as well as the way the concept of the vernacular itself changes in the period Art of Suppression Pamela M. Potter, 2016-06-28 This provocative study asks why we have held on to vivid images of the Nazis total control of the visual and performing arts even though research has shown that many artists and their works thrived under Hitler To answer this question Pamela M Potter investigates how historians since 1945 have written about music art architecture theater film and dance in Nazi Germany and how their accounts have been colored by politics of the Cold War the fall of communism and the wish to preserve the idea that true art and politics cannot mix Potter maintains that although the persecution of Jewish artists and other enemies of the state was a high priority for the Third Reich removing them from German cultural life did not eradicate their artistic legacies Art of Suppression examines the cultural histories of Nazi Germany to help us understand how the circumstances of exile the Allied occupation the Cold War and the complex meanings of modernism have sustained a distorted and problematic characterization of cultural life during the Third Reich

Power, Identity, and the Rise of Modern Architecture Koompong Noobanjong, 2003 This dissertation examines the evolution of Western and Modern architecture in Siam and Thailand It illustrates how various architectural ideas have contributed to the physical design and spatial configuration of places associated with negotiation and allocation of political power which are throne halls parliaments and government and civic structures since the 1850s The Daily Book of Art Colin Gilbert, Dylan Gilbert, Elizabeth T. Gilbert, Gabriel Guzman, Rebecca Razo, Sharon Robinson, Amy Runyen, David Schmidt, 2009-10-01 In today s fast paced world creative people are as eager as ever to pursue their artistic passions but many of them simply don t have enough time Catering to this modern dilemma we ve concocted the perfect remedy for overburdened artists The Daily Book of Art includes a year s worth of brief daily readings and lessons about the visual arts that entertain as they inform Ten exciting categories of discussion rotate throughout the course of a year giving readers a well rounded experience in the art world From color psychology and aesthetic philosophy to the proverbial argument over whether elephants really can paint art starved readers will encounter a broad range of inspiring subjects The ten categories of discussion include Art 101 Philosophy of Art Art Through the Ages Profiles in Art A Picture s Worth 200 Words Art from the Inside Out Art Around the World Artistic Oddities Unexpected Art Forms Step by Step Exercises

The Equilibrium of Parliamentary Law-making Viktor Kazai,2024-08-01 This book is a response to the dangers posed to constitutional democracy by the continuous growth of executive power and the simultaneous decline of parliaments role in policy formation These phenomena are often manifested in the manipulation and even the violation of the rules of parliamentary law making called irregularities If left without consequences these irregularities can ultimately lead to the elimination of the procedural constraints imposed on the ruling political forces to prevent their arbitrary exercise of power This work investigates the constitutional significance of the irregularities of parliamentary law making and explores the role that courts play in the remedy of these flaws The analysis is premised on the concept of equilibrium This explanatory concept denotes an ideal state in which parliamentary law making complies with the requirements of constitutionalism and judicial review is conceptualized as a mechanism suitable to achieve this aim The volume places the judicial review of the regulation and the practice of parliamentary law making at its center and discusses all the relevant legal concepts institutions and doctrines It combines theoretical analysis with case law centered comparative research covering a large number of decisions delivered by apex courts operating in various jurisdictions Due to this methodological choice the book aims to simultaneously contribute to the scholarly discourse and provide useful information to practicing lawyers and policymakers working in the areas of constitutional law and politics and comparative law

What Is Design? Anne J. Banks,2005-06-13 This book is an overview of the process of design as it has evolved from the earliest visual images and artifacts from prehistory to our modern practice of design Originally written as a textbook for design students and design professionals it is also oriented to the general public interest in the design arts and the fine arts Every object has a story to tell about its period in time its culture its maker and ways of making This thought was the idea behind the making of this book that we can read this story through the interpretation of the forms of objects Important influences on modern design have come from the Bauhaus and the French decorative arts However what the designer does is best expressed in the work of American industrial designer Norman Bel Geddes Excerpt page 55 Bell Geddes believed that design is primarily a matter of thinking and of envisioning how the customer would use the product While every product has a specific solution Bel Geddes instituted market research as an essential part of the design process In his redesign of the counter scale for the Toledo Scale Company he changed hand weights to a spring mechanism cast iron to aluminum enclosed the skeleton body in a white enamel shell and made the scale flush with the counter for ease of use while retaining its basic function Bel Geddes major innovation was the redesign of the Standard gas stove from a stylized furniture form to a single unit encased in clean white enamel Rethinking the stove as a skyscraper grid hung with steel plates he simplified the manufacturing process by creating twelve interchangeable components to form sixteen different models Source Norman Bel Geddes Horizons Cultural Critique Through the Detour of Art Kris Rutten, Keyan G. Tomaselli, 2025-06-30 This book brings together a selection of articles that have been published throughout a series of special issues of the journal Critical Arts South North Cultural and Media Studies that originally focused on the so called ethnographic turn in contemporary arts An increasing wave of art events has occurred since the 1990s that have displayed significant similarities with anthropology and ethnography in their theorizations of cultural difference and representational practices The aim of these works was to revisit the ethnographic turn in contemporary art by bringing together contributions from theorists artists and critics to engage critically with the ethnographic perspective in their work This focus on the ethnographic turn has been expanded in subsequent special issues to explore how culture and society can be critically explored and challenged through the detour of art how contemporary art practices engage with participation interaction and technology in an increasingly digital screen culture and what the role can be of critical art to conceptualize contest and or develop an engaged and critical pedagogy This collection aims to re-expose the special issues to an international audience by presenting a non-exhaustive selection of articles that exemplify the different perspectives and discussions that are tackled throughout It starts with three of the introductory articles that have attracted large readerships and that give a detailed introduction for the special issues The compilation ends with three so called Vignettes these are short statements and reflections by artists about their practice which are an important feature of the special issues An Art Lover's Guide to Florence Judith Testa, 2012-09-15 No city but Florence contains such an intense concentration of art produced in such a short span of time The sheer number and proximity of works of painting sculpture and architecture in Florence can be so overwhelming that Florentine hospitals treat hundreds of visitors each year for symptoms brought on by trying to see them all an illness famously identified with the French author Stendhal While most guidebooks offer only brief descriptions of a large number of works with little discussion of the historical background Judith Testa gives a fresh perspective on the rich and brilliant art of the Florentine Renaissance in An Art Lover's Guide to Florence Concentrating on a number of the greatest works by such masters as Botticelli and Michelangelo Testa explains each piece in terms of what it meant to the people who produced it and for whom they made it deftly treating the complex interplay of politics sex and religion that were involved in the creation of those works With Testa as a guide armchair travelers and tourists alike will delight in the fascinating world of Florentine art and history Design; Devoted to the Decorative Arts, 1929 The American Catalogue, 1901 American national trade bibliography Salted Paper Printing Christina Anderson, 2017-09-01 Salted Paper Printing A Step by Step Manual Highlighting Contemporary Artists makes one of the oldest known photographic processes easy for the 21st century using simple digital negative methods Christina Z Anderson's in-depth discussion begins with a history of salted paper printing then covers the salted paper process from beginner to intermediate level with step by step instructions and an illustrated troubleshooting guide Including cameraless imagery hand coloring salt in combination with gum and printing on fabric Salted Paper Printing contextualizes the practice within the varied alternative processes Anderson offers richly illustrated profiles of contemporary artists making salted paper prints discussing their creative process and methods Salted Paper Printing is perfect for the seasoned photographer looking to dip their toe into alternative processes or for the photography student eager to engage with photography s rich history
