

Chartered Tax Adviser (CTA) Qualifying Examination

Paper 2 - Hong Kong Tax

Objective of the Paper

To develop candidates' understanding of the current law relating to taxation under the Inland Revenue Ordinance, including its subsidiary legislation and the Stamp Duty Ordinance of the Hong Kong SAR, and their ability to interpret and apply the taxation statutes to practical situations in relation to corporations, partnerships and individuals.

After successfully completing this examination, candidates should be able to:

- demonstrate a thorough understanding of the practical aspects of the Hong Kong SAR taxation system
- apply the tax principles, decided cases and legislations to the Hong Kong taxation system and have an appreciation of the interaction of the various taxes
- prepare tax computations on property tax, salaries tax, profits tax, personal assessment and stamp duty

New Legislation

The Institute will not set questions requiring detailed knowledge of a new legislation until at least six calendar months after the last day of the month on which the legislation is gazetted upon approval by the Legislative Council. However, candidates taking the examination should be prepared to answer questions requiring knowledge of the principal aspects of that legislation at examinations held within that six-month period.

Structure of the Paper

The paper is a three-hour closed book examination to be based on the Inland Revenue Ordinance, including its subsidiary legislation and the Stamp Duty Ordinance of the Hong Kong SAR, and the relevant case law in the Hong Kong SAR, the United Kingdom and other existing and former Commonwealth countries. Questions will not be set on legislative changes which relate to amendments made to the two ordinances and tax cases that are decided within six months before an examination.

Format of the Paper

The examination paper consists of two sections:

Section A

This section scores 36% of the overall marks of the paper and consists of one compulsory question on a common practical situation that requires a CTA to apply the knowledge of Hong Kong tax.

Section B

This section scores 64% of the overall marks of the paper. Five questions will be set and candidates are required to answer any four questions in this section. These questions are on either stamp duty, profits tax (including depreciation allowances and Hong Kong tax implications of
