The Adventures of Pinocchio recounts the adventures of an animated puppet named Pinocchio who moves independently. He underwent transformations during the novel and is often described as wearing a pointed hat, a jacket, and a pair of knee-length colored pants called caprietti. Pinocchio's nose is his best-known feature. He grows taller when he tells a lie. The Adventures of Pinocchio focus on the psychological investigation of his central character as he tries to discover a humanity lost in the vacuum of technology and science. The book can also be approached through the prism of the philosophy of mind, of the essential questions in this field. These questions are about personality and suffering. The common thread of Pinocchio's story is his desire to become a human being. In search of his identity, Pinocchio goes on an initiation journey. The problem of identity leads to the duality of mind/body to what constitutes one's essence. To what extent do we remain the same when we change our appearance? Hence the story of an awareness of one's inner need. The puppet's desire to become human is one of the different literary manifestations of the animated/inanimate archetype being loaded with different connotations and substrates of meaning. An archetypal story due to all its mythical, fairytale, and religious references. Desire is the driving force that triggers the final metamorphosis, transforming inanimate matter into a living being. The puppet is in this context a
