Mind Gloria Amanda Kingsley,2023-08 What is the purpose of predicting the future if you cannot change its outcome The power of the mind can do it How Would you like to direct your life according to your desires This book is not a simple book about astrology it is a book about the magic power of the mind combined with the ability to make astrological predictions Modern astrology is a powerful predictive tool especially in relation to the transits of slow moving planets in conjunction with the planets in one s natal chart The most important events in life can occur during these astrological transits Being able to use transits for predictions of the future allows individuals to identify opportunities or challenges that may arise enabling them to live them to the fullest by directing the energy generated by planetary transits and events towards the best possible outcome for their lives This book aims to contribute to research while also providing a new perspective living through astrological transits not as data unchangeable events that must occur but as hypotheses that the mind can work with to shape reality towards one s desired future One of the basic hypotheses of quantum physics tells us that by viewing reality as an atom within itself we can transform it to become more like what we desire and are interested in While believing strongly in this view the author is not presumptuous enough to write about these themes However by predicting in advance opportunities or challenges that may arise one can prepare to shape them towards their his her best interests Planetary

transits simply exist What remains in our power of thought is the ability to visualize the desired event or events so that when the spark occurs we may be able to shape its contents and outcomes Predicting opportunities in advance helps us prepare to shape their outcome in our image and likeness A transit predicted in advance will give us an idea a feeling of what that transit will mean in our lives It is our ability to desire visualize and imagine that will transform the spark or sparks into the concrete opportunity that will enrich or even change our lives It is the human mind that plays with reality and shapes it in its own image Each planetary transit can influence our mood actions and choices differently Our thoughts come into play and the ability to seize opportunities and manipulate them makes the difference like a child playing with modeling paste What do kids do with modeling paste They create their own reality Their imagination becomes reality something tangible that the child is bringing to life in that moment with their thoughts and their hands And that s exactly what our thoughts can do at any given moment create reality play with the molecules we and the surrounding reality are made of to create our reality now These molecules receive energy from the Universe which can be positive energy a boost like a warm wind a pleasant breeze a rain shower or even a storm Our thoughts have the power to ride this winds like a surfer riding a wave This is the ability that must be in place in every moment to truly live to be captains of our own ship and not boats dragged by the current Ask and it shall be given to you It is actually a kind of powerful divination in which the events are guided by the individual mind by predicting them and shaping them in advance It is real magic guided by individual mind and not just an attempt The first book is dedicated to Jupiter the Optimus and Maximus as the ancients called him and to Uranus the Doorway to the Universe Jupiter is famously the largest and luckiest planet in our solar system and having it as an ally is a guarantee of success
