

The background of the cover is a photograph of two icebergs in the ocean. The water is split horizontally: the top half is a clear blue sky, and the bottom half is a dark, deep blue ocean. Two white icebergs are visible. The one on the left is smaller and has a simple, pointed peak. The one on the right is much larger and more complex, with multiple peaks and a jagged, eroded appearance. Both icebergs have a significant portion submerged below the water line, illustrating the concept of hidden risks or issues.
