Words by Don Black
Music by John Barry

♩ = 96

Bm

Em⁷

1. Dia-monds are for-ev-er. They are all I need to please me.

They can sti-mu-late and tease me. They won't leave in the night. I've no fear that they might de-sert me.

Em⁷ G/D Cmaj⁷ A⁷

The musical score is written for piano in D major, 4/4 time, with a tempo of 96 beats per minute. It consists of four systems of music. The first system (measures 1-4) features a piano introduction with a treble clef staff containing eighth-note patterns and a bass clef staff with whole rests. The second system (measures 5-8) includes the first line of lyrics: '1. Dia-monds are for-ev-er. They are all I need to please me.' The third system (measures 9-12) includes the second line of lyrics: 'They can sti-mu-late and tease me. They won't'. The fourth system (measures 13-16) includes the third line of lyrics: 'leave in the night. I've no fear that they might de-sert me.' Chord markings (Bm, Em7, G/D, Cmaj7, A7) are placed above the staff at various points. Fingerings (1-5) and dynamics (p) are indicated throughout the score.

Defence Policy of Nigeria: Capability and Context Charles Quarker Dokubo,Celestine Oyom Bassey,2011-01-20 This Reader provides a structurally coherent explanation and review of the magnified role conception and organizational task expansion for the Nigerian military establishment in foreign policy It argues essentially that one of the most problematic and intractable areas of public policy in Nigeria since the Civil War concerns the development of a professional defence establishment adequate to meet the challenges arising from the altered parameters of iour security environment The correction of this condition is the primary motivation of the Armed Forces modernization and augmentation program that touches upon all elements of Nigeria s military power This Reader is at once a review and a critique of the major facets of this modernization and augmentation process of the Nigerian armed forces within the operative context of the changing dimension of threat perception and the strategic parameters that have guided Nigerian military planning since the Civil War in 1970

The New Politics of Regionalism Ulf Engel,Heidrun Zinecker,Frank Mattheis,Antje Dietze,Thomas Plötze,2016-10-04 This edited volume approaches regionalism as one potential pattern in a changing global order Since the end of the Cold War different forms of territorialization have emerged and we are confronted with an increasing number and variety of actors that are establishing regional projects This volume offers an innovative contribution to the study of this new complexity by exploring constellations of regional actors spatial scales and imaginations beyond state centred perspectives as well as on multiple often overlapping levels The chapters analyse the emergence trajectories and outcomes of regionalisms from the perspective of the Global South specifically concentrating on regional projects in Latin America and Africa but also in the Asia Pacific They attempt to identify the specific conditions and junctures of different forms of region making in their external global and internal local national dimensions The volume also places special emphasis on interactions spatial entanglements and comparisons between regionalisms in different parts of the world By expanding beyond the perspective of North South transfers this book seeks to better understand the dynamics and diversity of interregional interactions This volume will appeal to scholars of global studies international political economy international relations human geography and development studies as well as area studies specialists who focus on Latin America and Africa

Situating Global
Resistance Lara Montesinos Coleman,Karen Tucker,2013-09-13 The book examines some of the ways in which contemporary forms of political dissent are situated within processes of global ordering Grounded in analysis of concrete practices of discipline and dissent in specific contexts it explores the ways in which resistance can be shaped by dominant ways of thinking seeing or enacting politics and by the multiform relations of power at play in the making of global order The contributions written from a variety of disciplinary backgrounds address themes such as the processes through which particular sorts of resisting subjects are produced the politics of knowledge in which resisting practices are embedded the ways in which visual technologies are deployed within and towards oppositional practices and the politics of gender race and class within spaces of contestation The volume thus opens up space for critical reflection and inter disciplinary dialogue on what it means to be a resisting subject and on the interplay between the power and counter power in global order This book was published as a special issue of Globalizations Building Ghosts Molly Lester, 2024-11-08 Portrays and examines imprints and impressions of demolished buildings found on the walls of neighboring structures Includes architectural street photography vignettes of the ghosts histories and reflections on their social significance Countering the Financing of Terrorism ,
