Leonard Woolf Gertrude Stein and Alice B Toklas Sylvia Townsend Warner and Valentine Ackland Christopher Isherwood and Don Bachardy and Sylvia Plath and Ted Hughes Utell draws on the latest work in narrative theory and the study of intimacy and affects to shed light on the ethics of reading relationships in the modern period Focusing on a range of genres and media from memoir through documentary film to comics this book demonstrates that stories are essential for our thinking of love desire and sexuality

European Writers in Exile Robert C. Hauhart, Jeff Birkenstein, 2018-10-26 European Writers in Exile collects a series of original essays that address the writers universal existential dilemma when viewed through the lens of exile who am I where am I from and what do I write and to whom While we often understand the term exile to refer to writers who have either been forced to leave their home country or region or chosen self exile this term need not be defined so narrowly and the contributors to this volume explore a range of interesting and evolving definitions Various countries in Europe have long been both a refuge for people and writers from many countries and a strife torn region which has forced many to flee within the continent or beyond it The phrase in exile involves writers moving across borders in multiple directions and for multiple reasons including for reasons of duress or personal quest and these themes are addressed and critiqued in these essays This volume naturally examines the cataclysmic and near universal exilic experiences relating to the world wars including essays on Thomas Mann Vladimir Nabokov Hannah Arendt and Leo Strauss Additionally essays address the unique early twentieth century experiences of Emile Zola Franz Kafka Joseph Conrad and James Joyce More contemporary essay subjects include Milan Kundera Norman Manea Eva Hoffman Caryl Phillips and W G Sebald This collection of transnational globalized European literature studies envisions understanding the intersection of our contemporary world and various writers in exile in new cultural historical spatial and epistemological frameworks How does literary production in an increasingly globalized world when seen from exile affect a view back towards a country or region left behind Or conversely how does exile push a writer to look outward to new trans nationalized space s These and other questions are important to investigate Taken in sum European Writers in Exile offers an academically rigorous important and cohesive volume

Diaries Christopher Isherwood, 2011 These diary entries are filled with philosophy gossip mystical insights and the period following his emigration to California in 1939 He is one of the great gay icons and his relationships are discussed frankly in these diaries

Letters Between Forster and Isherwood on Homosexuality and Literature Edward Morgan Forster, Christopher Isherwood, 2008-07-15 The correspondence between E M Forster and Christopher Isherwood is a fascinating record of the professional and personal lives of two major British writers from the 1930s to the 1960s The letters of the 1930s reveal how Forster and Isherwood each came to grips with the rise of fascism in Europe and threat of war as both writers and simply human beings caught in the midst of a world on the brink of disaster These letters also tell two parallel but very different stories of love and devotion between each writer and his respective male partner The correspondence during the war years juxtapose the strikingly different worlds in which Forster and Isherwood were living the London area during the Blitz and the southern California community of exiled writers respectively In the post war letters the two friends continue their ongoing conversation to find a suitable ending for Forster s groundbreaking but yet unpublished novel Maurice This complete collection of very readable letters thoroughly annotated and with an informative introduction will be of great interest for literary scholars and general readers

The Isherwood Century James J. Berg,Chris Freeman,2000 Best known for Goodbye to Berlin the inspiration for the Tony and Oscar award winning musical Cabaret Christopher Isherwood has always been considered both a literary and a gay pioneer In The Isherwood Century editors James J Berg and Chris Freeman have gathered twenty four essays and interviews on Christopher Isherwood s life and work The volume the first of its kind on Isherwood offers a fresh in depth view of the author his literary legacy and his continuing influence Jacket

Staging Growth David C. Engerman,2003 Situating modernization theory historically Staging Growth avoids conventional chronologies and categories of analysis particularly the traditional focus on conflicts between major powers The contributors employ a variety of approaches from economic and intellectual history to cultural criticism and biography to shed fresh light on the global forces that shaped the Cold War and its legacies Most of the pieces are comparative exploring how different countries and cultures have grappled with the implications of modern development At the same time all of the essays address similar fundamental questions Is modernization the same thing as Westernization Is the idea of modernization universally valid Do countries follow similar trajectories as they undertake development Does modernization bring about globalization Publisher

The War Diaries Irene Taylor,Alan F. Taylor,2006 From the creators of The Assassin s Cloak comes an anthology of powerful and sometimes surprising daily wartime diary entries from war fronts throughout history The War Diaries brings together in their own words the stories of men and women who have endured life at its most intense and dangerous By turns horrific and comic the entries retain the candid intimacy that is the particular preserve of those who keep diaries From Che Guevara Virginia Woolf and Davy Crockett to anonymous soldiers in the trenches these poignant and intense missives capture the immediacy horror and pathos of wars that span the centuries With a remarkable cross section of contributors Josef Goebbels Ana s Nin Florence Nightingale Samuel Pepys and Salam Pax to name just a few Irene and Alan Taylor bring unprecedented insight into what has been described as the most exciting and dramatic thing in life and the universal perversion war This book is a unique gift for history enthusiasts everywhere
