Letters. Postscript. Index Thomas Moore, 1856 Discovering the North-West Passage Glenn M. Stein, 2015-10-14 From 1850 to 1854 the ambitious Commander Robert McClure captained the HMS Investigator on a voyage in search of the missing Franklin Expedition which sailed from England into the Arctic in 1845 to map the last uncharted section of the North West Passage The Investigator and her consort the Enterprise were to pass through the Bering Strait from the west but a Pacific storm separated them never to meet again Obsessed with traversing the passage McClure pressed on and HMS Investigator spent three years trapped in pack ice in Mercy Bay before the crew abandoned ship on foot This book chronicles the voyage in detail McClure and his relationships with his officers are at the heart of the story of the arduous journey vividly illustrated by the paintings of Lt Samuel Cresswell Wilhelm II John C. G. Röhl, 2004-08-19 Kaiser Wilhelm II 1859 1941 ruled Imperial Germany from his accession in 1888 to his enforced abdication in 1918 at the end of the First World War This book based on a wealth of previously unpublished archival material provides the most detailed account ever written of the first half of his reign Following on from John Röhl's definitive and highly acclaimed Young Wilhelm The Kaiser's Early Life 1859 1888 1998 the volume demonstrates the monarch's dynastic arrogance and the wounding abuse he showered on his own people as step by step he built up his personal power His thirst for glory his overweening nationalism and militarism and his passion for the navy provided the impetus for a breathtaking long term goal the transformation of the German Reich into the foremost power in the world Urgent warnings from all sides both against the revival of a semi absolute Personal Monarchy on the threshold to the twentieth century and against the challenge his goal of world power implied for the existing World Powers Great Britain France and Russia were brushed aside by the impetuous young ruler with his faithful military retinue and blindly devoted court favourites Soon the predicted consequences constitutional crisis at home and diplomatic isolation abroad began to make their alarming appearance The Harold Nicolson Diaries Harold Nicolson, 2024-08-29 One of the great 20th century political diaries Brilliant riveting stuff TRIBUNE One stops to marvel at the achievement Honesty decency modesty magnanimity are stamped on every page as evident as the wit EVENING STANDARD A tremendous read SPECTATOR Harold Nicolson was one of the three great political diarists of the 20th century along with Chips Channon and Alan Clark Nicolson was an MP Conservative 1935-45 who also flirted with Labour after WWII He had previously been in the Foreign Office and attended the Paris Peace Conference in 1919 and material from this period is included in this new edition for the first time Nicolson never achieved high office but rarely a day went by when he didn't record what was going on at Westminster He socialised widely was married to the poet and author Vita Sackville West and together they created the famous garden at Sissinghurst Both were bisexuals and had affairs outside their marriage This new edition also draws on diary entries and letters previously considered too sensitive for inclusion The diversity of Harold Nicolson's interests and the irony in his writing make his diary a highly entertaining record of his life and times as well as a document of great historical value
