Reprint) William Biddle Atkinson, 2017-05-26 Excerpt from Hints in the Obstetric Procedure He would earnestly urge upon those who propose to practise obstetrics that they should make themselves thoroughly masters of the science and the art that they may respond to each call to the lying in chamber with a proper feeling of confidence in their knowledge and skill and at the same time a true appreciation of the great responsibility they thus assume The great bug bear Meddlesome Midwifery has too long acted to deter the physician from the performance of his duty as the aid the assistant of nature in this sacred act of the wife and mother It is a great source of regret that so many of our brethren even of those who have but recently emerged from the care of the fathers in medicine still adhere to exploded dogmas and old wives fables and are too ready to allow the parturient woman to be guided by the ideas and even follies of those around her About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
