History of India (medieval and Modern). L. Mukherjee (Prof.), 1934 The World Until 1400 According to Ibn Khaldun Abdesselam Cheddadi, 2024-12-03 This book explores the significance of Ibn Khaldun's magnum opus the Book of Examples to our understanding of human history and the disciplines of anthropology history and sociology Operating outside of the confines of the Western intellectual tradition Ibn Khaldun's the Book of Examples is perhaps the first attempt to propose a global history of humanity In doing so Ibn Khaldun pioneered approaches from what we today term sociology anthropology ecology economics geography and urban studies Drawing upon the Muqaddima and the other volumes of the Kitab al Ibar Cheddadi proposes novel ways of viewing human history and classifying societies While Ibn Khaldun's attempts to develop a true global history were ultimately flawed Cheddadi argues that they nevertheless offer pertinent lessons for our attempts to write a global history and to understand the world today This stimulating and original work on a seminal figure in Islamic sociology and historiography will be of interest to students and researchers across the humanities and social sciences

Tensions of Social History Alessandro Stanziani, 2022-12-15 This book seeks to overcome the tension between western and non western categories and tools in the study of global history showing how most western approaches to the social sciences and history have developed through transnational and colonial interactions Offering a transnational and global history of the main tools we have to understand the world and its transformations over the last three centuries Tensions of Social History explores the construction of archives and historical memory the making of statistics and their use in politics the identification of social actors and the emergence of key social theories Providing key insights into how to write history and develop social sciences in the global era while avoiding eurocentrism and cultural exceptionalism this ambitious book shows how global history is made of encounters rather than confrontations between civilizations The Routledge Companion to Marine and Maritime Worlds 1400-1800 Claire Jowitt, Craig Lambert, Steve Mentz, 2020-05-21 This book has been nominated for The Mountbatten Award for Best Book in the Maritime Media Awards 2021 The Routledge Companion to Marine and Maritime Worlds 1400-1800 explores early modern maritime history culture and the current state of the research and approaches taken by experts in the field Ranging from cartography to poetry and decorative design to naval warfare the book shows how once traditional and often Euro chauvinistic depictions of oceanic mastery during the early modern period have been replaced by newer global ideas This comprehensive volume challenges underlying assumptions by balancing its assessment of the consequences and accomplishments of European navigators in the era of Columbus da Gama and Magellan with an awareness of the sophistication and maritime expertise in Asia the Arab world and the Americas By imparting riveting new stories and global perceptions of maritime history and culture the contributors provide readers with fresh insights concerning early modern entanglements between humans and the vast unpredictable ocean With maritime studies growing and the ocean s health in decline this volume is essential reading for academics and students interested in the historicization of the ocean and the ways early modern cultures both conceptualized and utilized seas Library of Congress Catalog Library of Congress,1972 Beginning with 1953 entries for Motion pictures and filmstrips Music and phonorecords form separate parts of the Library of Congress catalogue Entries for Maps and atlases were issued separately 1953 1955
