Islam, Standards, and Technoscience Johan Fischer, 2015-10-23 Halal literally permissible or lawful production trade and standards have become essential to state regulated Islam and to companies in contemporary Malaysia and Singapore giving these two countries a special position in the rapidly expanding global market for halal products in these nations state bodies certify halal products as well as spaces shops factories and restaurants and work processes and so consumers can find state halal certified products from Malaysia and Singapore in shops around the world Building on ethnographic material from Malaysia Singapore and Europe this book provides an exploration of the role of halal production trade and standards Fischer explains how the global markets for halal comprise divergent zones in which Islam markets regulatory institutions and technoscience interact and diverge Focusing on the bigger institutional picture that frames everyday halal consumption Fischer provides a multisited ethnography of the overlapping technologies and techniques of production trade and standards that together warrant a product as halal and thereby help to format the market Exploring global halal in networks training laboratories activism companies shops and restaurants this book will be an essential resource to scholars and students of social science interested in the global interface zones between religion standards and technoscience Islamic Studies in the Twenty-first Century Léon Buskens, Annemarie Sandwijk, 2025-10-01 In recent decades traditional methods of philology and intellectual history applied to the study of Islam and Muslim societies have been met with considerable criticism from rising generations of scholars who have turned to the social sciences most notably anthropology and social history for guidance This change has been accompanied by the rise of new fields studying for example Islam in Europe and Africa and new topics such as the role of gender This collection surveys these transformations and others taking stock of the field and showing new paths forward The Universal Islamic Education Methodology

Roohi A. Ahmad, 2023-08-28 Have we ever wondered why Allah swt uses His name as Allah some places and Rabb in the others Have we ever wondered what the difference between momin and muslim is Can we make an argument to prove their meanings from within the Quran Have we ever wondered why Allah swt uses the word zikar so extensively throughout the Quran or what the meaning of the word zikar is or how the meaning of zikar is different from talu qara and ratat and even why there are talu qara and ratat the three different words for reading the Quran Or have we ever wondered why we are plagued by all kinds of catastrophes Or why is there so much chaos and conflict in the world and how can we solve these problems If we have not wondered about such questions the reason is that we have not read the Qur an in its true sense Today s Muslims have two main objectives for their children success in this world and triumph in the life hereafter Muslim children need natural and social knowledge but to fully enrich their minds they also need to learn about the Quran and Islamic traditions Many Islamic schools in North America are pursuing both of these objectives but educators often feel that merging these two goals is too difficult Having spent years teaching in Islamic schools and conducting a wealth of research Roohi A Ahmad has observed firsthand how complex the enterprise of Islamic education is She has also witnessed the void of learning outcomes teaching goals and most importantly a clear vision and methodology for Islamic education She has sought to remedy that situation in this book It provides a practical methodology designed to help Muslim educators create a state of the art Islamic education system that will lead to fully formed students who can function well in this world and ensure a positive outcome in the world to come Islam Knowledge Quiz
