Cattle and People Catarina Ginja,Elizabeth Wright,2022-05-01 This volume originates in a conference session that took place at the 2018 International Council of Archaeozoology conference in Ankara Turkey entitled Humans and Cattle Interdisciplinary Perspectives to an Ancient Relationship The aim of the session was to bring together zooarchaeologists and their colleagues from various other research fields working on human cattle interactions over time The contributions in this volume reflect well the breadth of work being undertaken on the ancient relationship between humans and cattle across the continents of Europe Africa and Asia and from the late Pleistocene to postmedieval period Almost all involve the study of archaeological cattle remains and use different zooarchaeological methods but the combination of these approaches with that of ethnography isotopes and genetics is also featured Author Interview State Formations John L. Brooke,Julia C. Strauss,Greg Anderson,2018-03-29 Featuring a sweeping array of essays from scholars of state formation and development this book presents an overview of approaches to studying the history of the state Focusing on the question of state formation this volume takes a particular look at the beginnings structures and constant reforming of state power Not only do the contributors draw upon both modernist and postmodernist theoretical perspectives they also address the topic from a global standpoint examining states from all areas of the world In their diverse and thorough exploration of state building the authors cross the theoretical geographic and chronological boundaries that traditionally shape this field in order to rethink the customary macro and micro approaches to the study of state building and make the case for global histories of both pre modern and modern state formations Handbook of Harappan Civilisation: Recent Insights and Discoveries V. N. T. Singh, 2005 This book deals with the development of irrigation in the subcontinent since the beginning of settled agriculture and its possible connections with the occurrence of salinity and alkalinity in irrigated lands Mega Mammals in Ancient India Shibani Bose, 2020-01-02 Since antiquity big mammals have inspired fear as well as fantasy among humans Not only do megafauna pervade the domains of religion art literature and folklore it is also now widely acknowledged that they can serve as important if not always adequate indices of environmental quality In this book Shibani Bose looks into eras bygone in order to chronicle the journeys of three mega mammals the rhinoceros elephant and tiger across millennia in early north India Carefully sifting through archaeological evidence and literary records in Sanskrit Pali Prakrit and classical Western accounts Bose documents the presence of these big mammals in diverse cultural contexts from hunter gatherer societies to the first urban civilization of India and beyond This work aims to reconstruct human interactions with these mega species through time while trying to understand the larger ecology of ancient India This book is especially well timed as the conservation of our megafaunal heritage is a major concern for biologists ecologists and conservationists It underlines the need to historicize human interactions with these mega mammals with the contention that awareness regarding their past is critical for their future

Seals and Sealing in the Ancient World Marta Ameri, Sarah Kiehl Costello, Gregg Jamison, Sarah Jarmer Scott, 2018-05-03 Studies of seals and sealing practices have traditionally investigated aspects of social political economic and ideological systems in ancient societies throughout the Old World Previously scholarship has focused on description and documentation chronology and dynastic histories administrative function iconography and style More recent studies have emphasized context production and use and increasingly identity gender and the social lives of seals their users and the artisans who produced them Using several methodological and theoretical perspectives this volume presents up to date research on seals that is comparative in scope and focus The cross cultural and interdisciplinary approach advances our understanding of the significance of an important class of material culture of the ancient world The volume will serve as an essential resource for scholars students and others interested in glyptic studies seal production and use and sealing practices in the Ancient Near East Egypt Ancient South Asia and the Aegean during the 4th 2nd Millennia BCE
