

GOOD FAITH

- Every party to every contract for the sale or lease of goods owes every other party a duty of good faith.
 - As of January 1, 2011, twenty-eight states' enactments of UCC Article 1 define "good faith" to require a non-merchant to behave honestly in fact and observe reasonable commercial standards of fair dealing; in the other twenty-two states and the District of Columbia, non-merchants need only behave honestly to satisfy their duty of good faith.
 - Regardless of which version of UCC Article 1 is in effect in a particular state, a merchant must behave honestly and observe reasonable commercial standards of fair dealing in the trade.
 - The parties cannot waive or disclaim the UCC's good faith requirement.
 - The UCC duty of good faith applies when performing or enforcing a contract; it does not apply prior to or during contract formation.
