1st to Die: Women's Murder Club Series Book# 1 James Patterson, 2001

First to Die Bryan Elson, 2010-07-23 This is a story drawn from the early days of the Canadian Navy an account of four young Canadian seamen who were the Navy's first casualties at the beginning of the First World War Ironically many consider them victims of incompetent seamanship by a British naval officer The four were among the 21 young men who made up the first class of the Royal Navy College of Canada set up in 1911 shortly after the Canadian Navy itself was established in 1910 All four sailors were from Canada's Maritime provinces After their training at the College they were posted to the British Navy for further experience at sea William Palmer first in his graduating class and Arthur Silver senior Cadet Captain both from Halifax were personally chosen by Rear Admiral Christopher Cradock to go to war on the large and powerful British vessel Good Hope Their comrades John Hatheway of Fredericton and Malcolm Cann of Yarmouth were also selected to the disappointment of the remaining men Within six weeks these our much envied comrades were dead as the Good Hope went down with no survivors sunk by the German navy First to Die depicts the early history of Canada's navy and the reality of war at sea experienced through the eyes of the four young midshipmen eager for adventure The book is extensively illustrated with photographs drawn from key archival and private collections

Insurance Activities of Banks Karol K. Sparks, 2011-12-19 As more and more banking organizations enter the insurance business the line between banks and insurance agencies has virtually disappeared in practice and in the eyes of federal and state legislators The need has never been greater for a clear guide that explains the legal and regulatory limits placed on banks involved in insurance sales activities Insurance Activities of Banks Second Edition provides authoritative coverage of insurance products now offered by banks plus the latest judicial and legislative developments including the landmark Gramm Leach Bliley Act that affect their activities It presents in clear detail on such vital topics as The many types of insurance activities now being handled by banks including retail sales of insurance and underwriting risk Major state insurance regulatory issues and how banks are affected State banks national banks and thrifts and the insurance activities permissible for each type of institution The various organization structures such as bank holding companies financial holding companies financial subsidiaries and how to choose the right entity for conducting insurance activities Offshore insurance activities

James Patterson Joan Kotker, 2004-03-30 Since the publication and cinematic success of 1992's Along Came a Spider James Patterson seems to have taken up permanent residence on the bestseller lists In the ensuing decade his hit detective novels with memorable nursery rhyme titles like Cat and Mouse 1997 and Pop Goes the Weasel 1999 came in rapid fire succession and generated similar popularity and praise His Alex Cross series created one of the most recognizable detectives in literature and one of the first urban African American detectives to appeal on such a grand scale to audiences of all demographics With full literary analyses of ten of his most popular works of fiction this critical companion offers readers a chance to more fully explore Patterson's writings Beginning with his 1976 bestseller The Thomas Berryman Number and moving chronologically to 2002's 2nd Chance each chapter examines elements of plot character development theme and critical perspectives A full chapter offers a delving biographical study of Patterson including a brief timeline that traces his early literary and personal interests and later professional achievements Another chapter discusses the genres of detective and mystery writing and situates Patterson's contributions within this framework Patterson's sociological writings are also considered Whether for personal pursuits or school assignments this volume provides ample insight and extensive bibliographic information on Patterson's work including critical sources and reviews

The Christian Church from the 1st to the 20th Century Philip, Schaff, 2015-03-24 Philip Schaff almost needs no introduction He wrote one of the finest histories of the church His work The History of the Christian Church has become a benchmark on the subject In his eight volume set he covers just about every
