Science and the Modern World Alfred North Whitehead, 1925 Science and the Modern World Alfred North Whitehead, 1953 Alfred North Whitehead's SCIENCE AND THE MODERN WORLD originally published in 1925 redefines the concept of modern science Presaging by more than half a century most of today's cutting edge thought on the cultural ramifications of science and technology Whitehead demands that readers understand and celebrate the contemporary historical and cultural context of scientific discovery Taking readers through the history of modern science Whitehead shows how cultural history has affected science over the ages in relation to such major intellectual themes as romanticism relativity quantum theory religion and movements for social progress Handbook of Whiteheadian Process Thought Michel Weber, 2013-04-30 Gathering 115 entries written by 101 internationally renowned experts in their fields the Handbook of Whiteheadian Process Thought aims at canvassing the current state of knowledge in Whiteheadian scholarship and at identifying promising directions for future investigations through internal cross elucidation and external interdisciplinary development Two kinds of entries are weaved together in order to interpret Whitehead secundum Whitehead and to read him from the vantage point of interdisciplinary and crossdisciplinary research The thematic entries provide i a broad contextualisation of the issue at stake ii a focus on Whitehead's treatment if any or of a possible Whiteheadian treatment of the issue iii a history of relevant scholarship iv a personal assessment by the Author The biographical entries provide i a brief vita of the targeted thinker ii a sketch of his/her categories relevant to the Whiteheadian scholarship iii a personal assessment of the actual or possible Whiteheadian semantic transfer to or from the thinker The Greening of America's Building Codes Aleksandra Jaeschke, 2022-12-20 Environmental disasters and severe weather due to climate change both triggered by human actions have had an increasingly direct impact on our homes But the way in which America builds its homes is part of the problem This deeply researched history of sustainable design standards in building codes explores how public policy standard setting trade associations and financial incentives influence the ways in which the construction of our homes impacts the environment The Greening of America's Building Codes investigates the regulations and economic incentives meant to control the environmental impact of contemporary construction practices as it analyzes the history of residential building codes The book exposes how the socioeconomic and political forces that influenced early building code development continue to define the character of current building codes and by extension determine how we regulate environmental impact and define sustainability today More relevant than ever The Greening of America's Building Codes is a valuable tool for architects architecture students builders real estate developers and homeowners who want to understand how public policy and their own day to day decisions impact the environment The Phenomenology of Traffic Glenn Wyatt, 2020-09-09 The book delves into the affective embodied and sensory dimensions of traffic and urban mobility It brings together key phenomenological and post phenomenological readings to challenge taken for granted assumptions of urban traffic Through the experiences of traffic users in Ho Chi Minh City Vietnam the book provides fascinating pathways into structures and processes that make up phenomenal traffic worlds It explores the nature of the traffic experience modalities of existence within it and the wide spectrum of awarenesses involved in making sense from non sense The book offers rich theoretical insights on how we feel our way through our affect laden worlds Through empirical examples from the urban traffic in Ho Chi Minh City the book explores this fluid constantly changing complex collective of ongoing negotiations we call traffic often emotional involving and producing all kinds of entities It develops a range of philosophical concepts in order to better understand the complex relationships between humans and non humans in everyday settings Offering innovative insights into the structures authorities materialities and forms of power that shape our experiences of traffic this book will be of interest to students scholars and practitioners interested in philosophy cultural geography mobilities transport studies cultural studies and urban studies Lynn Margulis Dorion Sagan,2012-10-19 Tireless controversial and hugely inspirational to those who knew her or encountered her work Lynn Margulis was a scientist whose intellectual energy and interests knew no bounds Best known for her work on the origins of eukaryotic cells the Gaia hypothesis and symbiogenesis as a driving force in evolution her work has forever changed the way we understand life on Earth When Margulis passed away in 2011 she left behind a groundbreaking scientific legacy that spanned decades In this collection Dorion Sagan Margulis s son and longtime collaborator gathers together the voices of friends and colleagues to remark on her life and legacy in essays that cover her early collaboration with James Lovelock her fearless face off with Richard Dawkins during the so called Battle of Balliol at Oxford the intrepid application of her scientific mind to the insistence that 9 11 was a false flag operation her affinity for Emily Dickinson and more Margulis was elected to the National Academy of Sciences in 1983 received the prestigious National Medal of Science in 1999 and her papers are permanently archived at the Library of Congress Less than a month before her untimely death Margulis was named one of the twenty most influential scientists alive one of only two women on this list which include such scientists as Stephen Hawking James Watson and Jane Goodall Although she could be a bulldog her heart was soft and her spirit loving beneath the scientific realpolitik of her conversation and the insistent tough mindedness of her sometimes strident and blunt withering and refreshingly unadorned opinions

Dorion Sagan from the introduction Citizens of Worlds Jennifer Gabrys,2022-11-15 An unparalleled how to guide to citizen sensing practices that monitor air pollution Modern environments are awash with pollutants churning through the air from toxic gases and intensifying carbon to carcinogenic particles and novel viruses The effects on our bodies and our planet are perilous Citizens of Worlds is the first thorough study of the increasingly widespread use of digital technologies to monitor and respond to air pollution It presents practice based research on working with communities and making sensor toolkits to detect pollution while examining the political subjects relations and worlds these technologies generate Drawing on data from the Citizen Sense research group which worked with communities in the United States and the United Kingdom to develop digital sensor toolkits Jennifer Gabrys argues that citizen oriented technologies promise positive change but then collide with entrenched and inequitable power structures She asks Who or what constitutes a citizen in citizen sensing How do digital sensing technologies enable or constrain environmental citizenship Spanning three project areas this study describes collaborations to monitor air pollution from fracking infrastructure to document emissions in urban environments and to create air quality gardens As these projects show how people respond to care for and struggle to transform environmental conditions informs the political subjects and collectives they become as they strive for more breathable worlds
