Saunders,2016-12-21 The Rhetorical Power of Children s Literature is an edited volume with contributions from established and new scholars of rhetoric offering case studies that analyze a full array of genres in children s literature from picture books to young adult novels Collectively this volume s contributions interrogate how children s literature is a powerful yet under examined space of rhetorical discourse that influences one of the most vulnerable segments of our population This book is singularly unique given that it will be the first collection of essays on children s literature from the distinct perspective of the field of Communication Beyond topical novelty the contributors utilize a range of scholarly methods to analyze instances of the rhetoric of children s literature Consequently essays in this volume may be read for both their specific topical content and as exemplars for multiple methodological approaches to the study of the rhetoric of children s literature Collectively the contributors set out to contribute to our knowledge of how instances of children s literature operate as rhetorical discourses The volume is organized by case studies approached through critical rhetorical lenses that analyze specific instances of children s literature from two distinct stages of children s developmental reading experiences including pre early literacy and fluent reading Structurally the book includes eight content chapters divided evenly with four chapters analyzing books for young children and four chapters analyzing books targeting audiences from late childhood to adolescence An overview of each content chapter accompanies this proposal

Child pornography United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary. Subcommittee on Juvenile Justice,1983 American Photo ,2005 A Good Pair of Boots and A Road to Walk On C. H. Evers,2015-05-20 This book details the foot travels of a young impressionable boy in the middle of the last century Being enticed by the call of the long winding road he foot travel s Canada s landscapes in all provinces coast to coast With this desire to explore his homeland the boy seeks to experience the unique smells tastes and textures of every terrain of every geographic location needing to feel a belonging and welcome This book will track his journey as he moves into adulthood into the domesticity of a typical Canadian community and into retirement Initially innocent and trusting he is confronted by a society that he sees as hypocritical and criminal and without a moral or social compass Now as a young man raising a family he sets out to question the social re engineering of the Canadian establishment and the apathy of his fellow countrymen bothers him deeply Curious now he sets out to investigate this troubling situation Inquisitive and concerned he approaches this task with the same vigour determination and sensitivity that he sustained through his teen years exploring his Canadian homeland Now he finds that the re engineering of his society does not allow for queries or legal protest Wishing to understand and having an inquisitive nature he sets out with intent and allows himself to be incarcerated where he is introduced to Canada s criminal courts and justice system His suspicions of corruption are confirmed However his findings of this criminal activity are distorted by the compliant criminal media using fabrication and lies The socially re engineered community where the older man now lives accepts the media s distortions and inventions as truths and therefore self evident The reader of this book will be taken into a neighbourhood unremarkable on the face of it but a community that sustains a situation that is toxic and unliveable for a man who only sought to feel at home and belong to what he feels could have been a greater country It is at this point that the reader will come to the realization that they are complicit in this collective malaise and that they are this man s community and neighbour They will have seen the enemy and it is they themselves
