and I'll Take Manhattan by the best selling author are gathered in one volume Sex and Shopping: The Confessions of a Nice Jewish Girl Judith Krantz, 2000-05-11 Dear Reader As I was about to start my eleventh novel I abruptly realized that I was making a huge mistake On the verge of launching into the imagined world of a twenty eight year old I felt an intense need to tell another story the story of a woman I know through and through a woman with more wealth of experience a woman who's seen more real glamour known more fascinating people lived in a world of more sophistication and arrived at more hard won maturity than that twenty eight year old could hope for in short my own story I've tried to remain as unknowable as possible the better to let my heroines hold the stage but now I was ready to tell the truth about myself with no holding back I've had a different life from that of the majority of women of my generation and background While I seemed like another nice Jewish girl underneath that convenient cover I'd traveled my own inner directed path and had many a spicy and secret adventure I grew up in a complicated tangle of privilege family problems and tormented teenaged sexuality After a riotous education at Wellesley my life was turned upside down by a glorious year in Paris marked by an intense but ill starred romance I spent the next half decade in New York sowing lighthearted wild oats until I finally met my true love to whom I've been married for forty six years When I was fifty I had an utterly unexpected almost unbelievable success as a number one bestselling novelist that has continued for book after book Challenging lucky exciting and often devastatingly askew my life seems to have been lived under a wild and antic star I've had as much amazing fun as my heroines and here's the book to prove it Judith Krantz
