Whistling in the Dark Janice McRandal, Stephen John Wright, 2024-03-29 This lively collection of interdisciplinary essays engages the theology of Craig Keen Keen's work responds to the violence of metaphysics through a still and considered focus on divesting oneself of power. Acutely aware of the problems of modern theology, Keen does not set out to solve every puzzle but instead responds to difficult questions with hope and prayer. For Keen, theology is never to be the acquisition of knowledge but the giving of love. He writes in such a way as to create space for voices of difference and dissent. The essays included in this volume do not just interpret, explain, or critique Keen's thought but they seek to accompany him in attentiveness to difference and pain. As such, they engage with the same concerns as Keen: the violence of concepts, the suffering of individuals, the divestment of power, and the embodiment of prayer and doxology.

Poetry Pauses Brett Vogelsinger, 2023-02-07. This book is about the power of words and how we use them in life to improve the world, both our own microcosm and the great wide world beyond. The opening abecedarian mines those big, broad, abstract ideas in a way that feels concrete and illuminating. In general, collecting words can open our eyes to new possibilities as writers. A confluence of ideas from two skilled, brilliant teachers helped me realize the brainstorming potential in word collections. Poetry pauses offer us the gift of discovery. They invite us to slow down and think. They invite us to craft our thinking alongside some of the most inventive, technically talented writers to have ever lived. Poetry can offer a salve, a poke, a hug, a challenge, an inscrutable mystery, or an immutable truth. We just need to slow down enough to notice.

Experience Required Robert Hoekman Jr., 2015-11-21. For all the resources on great design, there is almost nothing on how to be a great design professional. For all the schools and classes and workshops on what constitutes a good user experience, there is not one bit of formalized education on how to earn the respect of your team and get your recommendations out the door. Sure, they'll teach you how to do user research and testing and interaction design. They'll teach you about process. But where's the book on how to convince people you're right? On what skills will make you the most valuable? How to fend off the bad ideas and fight for the good ones? How to move from junior to senior? How to become a UX leader? In Experience Required, veteran UX strategist Robert Hoekman Jr. reveals the following and much more: the pros and cons of generalists, specialists, and unicorns; the art and imperative of forming a good argument; why communication may be your biggest obstacle; the qualities and actions of effective design leaders; why being unreasonable might be the key to your success. Whatever your role, Experience Required teaches you to become the UX leader you've always wanted to be. Take charge of your next project starting right now.

Minding the Web Stanley Hauerwas, Robert J. Dean, 2018-11-06. For over forty years, Stanley Hauerwas has been writing theology that matters. In this new collection of essays, lectures, and sermons, Hauerwas continues his life's work of exploring the theological web, discovering and recovering the connections necessary for the church to bear faithful witness to Christ in our complex and changing times. Hauerwas enters into conversation with a diverse array of interlocutors as he brings new insights to bear on matters theological, delves into university matters, demonstrates how lives matter, and continues in his passionate commitment to the matter of preaching. Essays by Robert Dean illumine the connections that have made Hauerwas's theological web slinging so significant and demonstrate why
