Graphic Novels for Children and Young Adults Michelle Ann Abate, Gwen Athene Tarbox, 2017-04-27 With contributions by Eti Berland Rebecca A Brown Christiane Buuck Joanna C Davis McElligatt Rachel Dean Ruzicka Karly Marie Grice Mary Beth Hines Krystal Howard Aaron Kashtan Michael L Kersulov Catherine Kyle David E Low Anuja Madan Meghann Meeusen Rachel L Rickard Rebellino Rebecca Rupert Cathy Ryan Joe Sutliff Sanders Joseph Michael Sommers Marni Stanley Gwen Athene Tarbox Sarah Thaller Annette Wannamaker and Lance Weldy One of the most significant transformations in literature for children and young adults during the last twenty years has been the resurgence of comics. Educators and librarians extol the benefits of comics reading and increasingly children's and YA comics and comics hybrids have won major prizes including the Printz Award and the National Book Award. Despite the popularity and influence of children's and YA graphic novels, the genre has not received adequate scholarly attention. Graphic Novels for Children and Young Adults is the first book to offer a critical examination of children's and YA comics. The anthology is divided into five sections: structure and narration, transmedia pedagogy, gender and sexuality, and identity, that reflect crucial issues and recurring topics in comics scholarship during the twenty-first century. The contributors are likewise drawn from a diverse array of disciplines: English education, library science, and fine arts. Collectively, they analyze a variety of contemporary comics, including such highly popular series as Diary of a Wimpy Kid and Lumberjanes. Eisner Award-winning graphic novels by Gene Luen Yang, Nate Powell, Mariko Tamaki, and Jillian Tamaki, as well as volumes frequently challenged for use in secondary classrooms such as Raina Telgemeier's Drama and Sherman Alexie's The Absolutely True Diary of a Part-Time Indian. Representation and Memory in Graphic Novels Golnar Nabizadeh, 2019-04-16

This book analyses the relationship between comics and cultural memory. By focussing on a range of landmark comics from the twentieth and twenty-first centuries, the discussion draws attention to the ongoing role of visual culture in framing testimony, particularly in relation to underprivileged subjects such as migrants and refugees, individuals dealing with war and oppressive regimes, and individuals living with particular health conditions. The discussion is influenced by literary and cultural debates on the intersections between ethics, testimony, trauma, and human rights reflected in its three overarching questions: How do comics usually complicate the production of cultural memory in local contexts and global mediascapes? How do comics engage with and generate new forms of testimonial address? and How do the comics function as mnemonic structures? The author highlights that the power of comics is that they allow both creators and readers to visualise the fracturing power of violence and oppression at the level of the individual, domestic, communal, national, and international in powerful and creative ways. Comics do not stand outside of literature, cinema, or any of the other arts but rather enliven the reciprocal relationship between the verbal and the visual language that informs all of these media. As such, the discussion demonstrates how fields such as graphic medicine, graphic justice, and comics journalism contribute to existing theoretical and analytics debates, including critical visual theory, trauma, and memory studies, by offering a broad-ranging yet cohesive analysis of cultural memory and its representation in print and digital comics. Beyond the Book Bridget Carrington, 2014-01-06

November 2012 saw the joint annual conference of the British branch of the International Board on Books for Young People (IBBY UK) and the MA course at the National Centre for Research in Children's Literature (NCRCL) at Roehampton University. The theme of the conference was the investigation of aspects of literature for children that were Beyond the Book. From woodcuts to e-books, children's literature has always lent itself to reinterpretation and expansion. In its early days, this was achieved through different forms of retelling through illustration and interactive illustration, pop-ups and flaps and then through music film television and stage adaptation The contributors to the 2012 conference explored the variety of means by which we transform literature intended for children and celebrated the vibrant world of creativity that has sought and continues to seek different ways in which to engage young readers Bridget Carrington and Jennifer Harding have previously collaborated as the editors of earlier IBBY UK NCRCL MA conference proceedings Going Graphic Comics and Graphic Novels for Young People Conflicts and Controversies Challenging Children's Literature and It Doesn't Have to Rhyme Children and Poetry Pied Piper Publishing 2010 2011 2012 The Arrival Kristine Landon-Smith, Sita Brahmachari, 2013-05-23 A moment of kindness in a sea of unfamiliarity A long hard day at work A lively party A nostalgic lullaby The story begins in Nigeria where the character of Dele plays a last game of football with his friends and says goodbye to his son Chidi telling him he will send for him He then embarks on a voyage where he meets strangers along the way carrying their own stories of upheaval struggle and hope sharing his dream to make their home in a new city and be joined by their families Dele's journey melds with the present day In an inner city hostel Dele is an old man being looked after by Tian Mey his carer He reflects the past and his journey to where he is now and his story intertwines with the other migrants both in his memories of the journey and the present day reality of the hostel Based on the illustrated novel by Oscar winner Shaun Tan one man's tale echoes the many arrivals happening around us all the time This epic migration story unfolds through an extraordinary weaving together of theatre circus and music The Arrival tells the age old story of immigration that is universal across peoples of diverse histories countries and cultures Arrival the Signed Edition Shaun Tan, 2012-09-04 Overland, 2007 Mobility, Agency, Kinship Lea Espinoza Garrido, Carolin Gebauer, Julia Wewior, 2024-08-22 This volume offers new perspectives on the ways in which migrants use storytelling practices and kinship formations in order to navigate and modify spaces of sovereignty and thus to re-write narratives portraying them as helpless and passive victims It provides one of the first investigations that assembles multidisciplinary contributions to look beyond individual acts of migrant agency and toward the entanglements of individual and collective agency formations of kinship structures and feelings expressions and representations of community and multiple belonging's The contributions explore the interplay between agency kinship and migration from various fields including sociology psychology philosophy border studies gender and queer studies postcolonial studies ecocriticism film and media studies and literary and cultural studies with a special focus on interdisciplinary narrative theory They address real and imagined assertions of migrant agency and kinship formations draw on empirical research interviews and accounts of lived experiences and analyze the role of narrative media and technologies in artistic literary and cinematic representations of migrant agency and kinship By probing migrant identity discourses in different cultural and medial contexts the contributions examine how narratives negotiate and challenge the unequal distribution of mobility resources and vulnerability that preconfigures many migrant lives they also discuss narrative devices storytelling techniques and other representational strategies that migrants employ as well as technologies that they
