Women Leading Education Across the Continents Helen C. Sobehart, 2009-01-16 Women Leading Education across the Continents is the first collection of research about and stories of women in basic and higher education leadership from every region of the globe The chapters are authored by scholars representing every continent including a keynote from the first all female team to traverse Antarctica The book captures not only statistical data about the position of women in basic and higher education in over 17 countries but relates compelling insights and stories about the challenges that women face in leadership the limited access to education by young women and some strategies for success that have fanned a flame to light the way for both women and men to follow toward equity and social justice

Political Life Writing in the Pacific Jack Corbett, Brij V. Lal, 2015-07-29 This book aims to reflect on the experiential side of writing political lives in the Pacific region The collection touches on aspects of the life writing art that are particularly pertinent to political figures public perception and ideology identifying important political successes and policy initiatives grappling with issues like corruption and age old political science questions about leadership and dirty hands These are general themes but they take on a particular significance in the Pacific context and so the contributions explore these themes in relation to patterns of colonisation and the memory of independence issues elliptically captured by terms like culture and tradition the nature of self presented in Pacific life writing and the tendency for many of these texts to be written by outsiders or at least the increasingly contested nature of what that term means

Election 2007 R.J. May, Ray Anere, Nicole Haley, Katherine Wheen, 2013-09-23 Papua New Guinea's general election in 2007 attracted particular interest for several reasons Not only did it follow what was widely acknowledged as the country's worst election ever in 2002 in which elections in six of the country's 109 electorates were declared to be failed elections it was the first general election to be held under a new limited preferential voting system It also followed the first full parliamentary term under the Organic Law on the Integrity of Political Parties and Candidates which had been introduced in 2001 in an attempt to strengthen political parties and create a greater degree of stability in the national parliament and was the first to embrace a whole of government approach to electoral administration through an Interdepartmental Electoral Committee This volume provides an analysis of the 2007 election drawing on the work of a domestic monitoring team organized through the National Research Institute and several visiting scholars It addresses key issues such as voter education electoral administration election security the role of political parties women as candidates and voters the shift to limited preferential voting and HIV transmission and provides detailed accounts of the election in a number of open and provincial electorates It is generally agreed that the election of 2007 was an improvement on that of 2002 But problems of electoral administration and voting behaviour remain These are identified in this volume and recommendations made for electoral reform Gender Analysis in Papua New Guinea Elizabeth C. Brouwer, Bruce M. Harris, Sonomi Tanaka, 1998-01-01 In October 1996 The East Asia and Pacific Region developed a Regional Gender Action Plan that stressed the importance of country specific strategies regarding gender issues This report on gender in Papua New Guinea intends to lay the foundation for such a strategy The report provides an outline of the key historical economic demographic political geographic socio cultural legal and institutional issues that are relevant to understanding the status of women in Papua New Guinea today The Parliamentarian ,2005 Women Today Pacific ,2000-10 Training & Congress on Positioning Pacific Women for Progress ,2003 Women's News ,1997 Papua New Guinea Yearbook ,2004

Pacific Magazine ,2008 The Bulletin ,2004-03 The Annual Register: World Events ,2003 The Unexpected Guest Norbert Makmop,1998 Adventist Review ,2002 1997 National Parliament General Election Results ,1997
