Keep in Step with the Spirit J. I. Packer, 2005-05 One of Christianity's greatest scholars makes the person and power of the Holy Spirit accessible to all who strive for a closer walk with God The Theology of the Christian Life in J.I. Packer's Thought Don J. Payne, 2006-06-01 This study offers a critical analysis of J I Packer's theology of the Christian life Packer has achieved international acclaim and wielded widespread influence within evangelicalism for more than three decades particularly through his writings on the doctrine of sanctification His approach to sanctification is examined in light of the theological anthropology and theological method that constitute its unique structure and assumptions J I Packer has been one of the most recognized evangelical theologians of the late twentieth century Among his theological passions is anchoring the Christian life in the legacy of Reformed theology particularly that expressed by seventeenth century English Puritanism Yet his treatment of the doctrine of sanctification is shaped by two other influences theological anthropology and theological method This hermeneutical exploration of Packer's treatment of sanctification offers fresh insight into his thought and demonstrates the often unnoticed impact of theological anthropology and theological method within evangelical theology

A Spiritual Portrait of a Believer Chet Cataldo, 2010-02-19 The focus of this study is to discover the identity of the emphatic I of Rom 7 with the added purpose of attempting to draw a spiritual portrait of a mature Christian believer To accomplish this purpose the process is as follows An examination of Rom 7 within its context is conducted This examination is followed by an attempt at determining the experience of the emphatic I found within Rom 7 The next step in the process is to compare the experience of the emphatic I of Rom 7 as found within its context of Rom 1:8 with what Paul wrote elsewhere on the experience of new life in Christ for Christian believers The purpose of this comparison is to discover if Paul had a consistent portrait of spirituality and Christian maturity The final step is to compare the experience described by Paul both in Rom 7 and in the wider Pauline Corpus with the experience which John Wesley called perfection and with the Mystical experience called the spiritual marriage The study of Romans Wesley and the Mystics coupled with the wider study of the secondary literature showed that there is a remarkable consistency in the teaching and understanding that the closer a Christian believer gets to God the more this Christian believer is aware of his or her own sinfulness Paul in describing the experience of the emphatic I is describing a person who is becoming more and more aware of his or her own sinfulness The conclusion to be drawn from this study is that the identity of the emphatic I is of a regenerate Christian believer one who is growing ever closer and closer to God and at the same time is in pain over the remaining effects of sin A Great Cloud of Witnesses John Steinreich, 2016-06-16 Essays on a variety of subjects from the religious social and political spheres based on the author's research into the history of the Christian church Christianity Made in India Roger E. Hedlund, 2017-10-01 Christianity Made in India From Apostle Thomas to Mother Teresa discusses the indigenization of Christianity in the Indian context It is set in the larger context of the exceptional growth of the church in the non Western world during the twentieth century which has been characterized by a diversity of localized cultural expressions It recognizes that the center of Christian influence numerically and theologically is shifting southward to Africa Latin America and Asia It affirms the reality that wherever the gospel goes it takes root in the local culture

The Making of Evangelical Spirituality Jason Cherry, 2023-01-05 How did it come to be that evangelicals expect individualized extrabiblical revelation from God What has happened culturally historically and theologically to make this the ubiquitous assumption of evangelical spirituality The Making of Evangelical Spirituality is a compound of history and theology applied to the subject of evangelical spirituality specifically the phenomenon of evangelicals thinking God spoke to me in a still quiet voice The story is complex multifaceted and urgently in need of telling Few Christians know the history of the spiritual expectations heaped upon them Few know the individuals who gave shape to evangelical spirituality spiritual chieftains who were often guided by uniquely ephemeral social and cultural forces There is no towering figure like Martin Luther that stands as the lone front man for the esoterica of evangelical spirituality Instead it is the osmosis of many fascinating people struggling through life in the storm of worldly and cultural momentum This book is the story of those hermits monks reformers heretics politicians outcasts and preachers who gave shape Failure to tell the story now risks it becoming just another part of historical compost threatening to make evangelicals forever ignorant of what they are tossing into the garden of their soul

The Holy Spirit Ivan Satyavrata, 2009-01-01 Theologian Ivan Satyavrata believes that while there is much to celebrate in the more recent focus on the Holy Spirit and his workings after several centuries of relative neglect there is a pressing need to relate our present experience of the Spirit to the teaching of God's Word This is a task to which this book is devoted theologian J I Packer in this classic book on biblical holiness when all Christians laid great emphasis on God's call to holiness. But how different it is today! In this revised and updated edition of Rediscovering Holiness the highway is once more clearly marked out for a new generation of readers pointing to true freedom and joy both now and in eternity. The Charismatics and the Word of God Victor Budgen, 1985 Growing Deep in the Christian Life, 1987-03-26 The Spirit, the Church, and the World John R.
