The Bright Survivor Sharon Shih, 2024-01-12 The Bright Survivor is a memoir offered in a unique second person mother to son approach. The mother provides a detailed story about how her son grew up in a small family of the first generation immigrants in Canada. Her son was born in Toronto when she and her husband were in their forties finishing school and starting a new career. When they immigrated to Canada after his birth, the immigration officer asked them to make sure that he gets all that a Canadian deserves. It took twenty years. The family of three explored and overcame several learning curves. For many years, being with his parents was rare for the boy because his parents always worked full time. He grew up with Chinese nannies, home cares, after school programs, and extra curricular lessons. For summer and winter breaks, he was busy with camps and sometimes family trips. In his primary school years, the boy was fine but had little patience in group settings and split grade classes. His parents pursued a better fit for his education. He eventually felt in the right place with the International Baccalaureate program at high school and went to a co-op program for his college education to become an engineer. His mother wondered sometimes if the home she had provided could have been more relaxing and better appreciated. Her generation never had the time or resources. Her version of his childhood is marked by persistent effort in a diverse world, always with an open mind and often with love and happiness. Resources in Education, 1991 Resources in Education, 1991 The Executive Educator, 1992 Preschool and Elementary Mary Pride, 1991-06 Preschool and elementary volume 2 A Friend Like Henry Nuala Gardner, 2011-08-18 This is the inspiring account of a family's struggle to break into their son's autistic world and how a beautiful retriever dog made the real difference. Dale was still a baby when his parents realised that something wasn't right. Worried, his mother Nuala took him to see several doctors before finally hearing the word autism for the first time. Scared but determined that Dale should live a fulfilling life, Nuala describes her despair at her son's condition, her struggle to prevent Dale being excluded from a normal education, and her sense of hopeless isolation. Dale's autism was severe and violent, and family life was a daily battleground. But the Gardner's lives were transformed when they welcomed a gorgeous Golden Retriever into the family. The special bond between Dale and his dog Henry helped them to produce the breakthrough in Dale they had long sought. From taking a bath to saying I love you, Henry helped introduce Dale to all the normal activities most parents take for granted and set him on the road to being the charming and well-adjusted young man he is today. This is a heartrending and fascinating account of how one devoted and talented dog helped a little boy conquer his autism.
