The World's Parliament of Religions John Henry Barrows, 1893 Errand into the Wilderness of Mirrors Michael Graziano, 2021-06-17 Reveals the previous underexplored influence of religious thought in building the foundations of the CIA Michael Graziano's intriguing book fuses two landmark titles in American history Perry Miller's Errand into the Wilderness 1956 about the religious worldview of the early Massachusetts colonists and David Martin's Wilderness of Mirrors 1980 about the dangers and delusions inherent to the Central Intelligence Agency Fittingly Errand into the Wilderness of Mirrors investigates the dangers and delusions that ensued from the religious worldview of the early molders of the Central Intelligence Agency Graziano argues that the religious approach to intelligence by key OSS and CIA figures like Wild Bill Donovan and Edward Lansdale was an essential and overlooked factor in establishing the agency's concerns methods and understandings of the world In a practical sense this was because the Roman Catholic Church already had global networks of people and safe places that American agents could use to their advantage But more tellingly Graziano shows American intelligence officers were overly inclined to view powerful religions and religious figures through the frameworks of Catholicism As Graziano makes clear these misconceptions often led to tragedy and disaster on an international scale By braiding the development of the modern intelligence agency with the story of postwar American religion Errand into the Wilderness of Mirrors delivers a provocative new look at a secret driver of one of the major engines of American power

Jews and Christians Together Christian van Gorder, Gordon Fuller, 2020-08-06 Rabbi Gordon Fuller and Dr Christian van Gorder are committed to helping people of both faith traditions gain as far as is possible a participant s appreciation of those from the other community This means addressing misconceptions and misrepresentations as well as challenging widely held assumptions Jews and Christians Together delves into the strained relationship between these two faith communities and exposes why these communities need to come to a better understanding and appreciation of the other Events such as the attack on the Tree of Life Synagogue in Pittsburgh Pennsylvania demonstrate why society must address and foil anti-Semitism and anti Judaism wherever and whenever such views appear The efforts of Fuller and van Gorder to explore these issues with their own faith communities can provide a helpful starting point to confront trends of increasing hate and bigotry towards Jews today Fuller and van Gorder ask us to acknowledge the marred history of Christianity and anti-Semitism so that we can explore healthy Jewish Christian dialogue and gain a shared and constructive mutual respect
