the onset of denationalising wave of globalization literature and culture feel impelled to locate new arrangements of content and form resulting in evolved cultural and social paradigm Globalizing forces are reshaping our cultural economic and social landscapes The literary discourse is also experiencing change at large including in its migrant diasporic postcolonial and transnational variants This transfusion leads to identifying new transcultural and transnational approaches perspectives and theories RE MAPPING THE CENTRE AND THE PERIPHERY STUDIES IN LITERATURE CULTURE offers a comprehensive approach toward culture language and literature contributing to assess the dynamic of center s periphery ies in the various spheres The book sustains a plethora of themes ranging from adult hegemony female subjectivity and diaspora to Ganga Ghat and artificial intelligence The book critiques the centre and the periphery and provides a fresh approach to the acclaimed oeuvres The book also offers an unflinching critique of content and inequality through the lens of caste class gender and race The vivacity and horizons of research articles have been multiplied in curious and exciting ways Throughout the book a sense of place or the periphery is shown to be established negated or supplanted by the literary works which are underpinned by the interlocking trajectories of several literary doctrines and approaches Besides literary and subtle observations there are reflections gleaned from AI and mobile assisted language learning Plurality of observations diversity of themes and myriad interpretations will divulge an immense appeal to the Indian consciousness The book posits that the scholarly articles express the confluential cultures which undermine the dichotomies between the colonizer and the colonized the dominator and the dominated the native and the im migrant and the national and the ethnic

Classical Urdu Literature from the Beginning to Iqbāl Annemarie Schimmel,1975 Studies of Literature from Marginalized Nations in Modern China, with a Focus on Eastern European Literature Binghui Song,2024-04-14 This book presents the first systematic study of the 100 year history of translation research reception and influence of Central and Eastern European literature in China from the late Qing Dynasty to the end of the twentieth century This study of Eastern European literature from the perspective of Sino foreign literary relations is based on extensive research into the translation and reception of Central and Eastern European writers such as Milan Kundera S ndor Pet fi Henryk Sienkiewicz Julius Fucik and Bertolt Brecht Since the late nineteenth century the major Chinese writers have paid special attention to the literature of the marginalized Eastern European nations when they have to translate from translations since few of them understand Eastern European languages The book seeks to identify what attracted the founders of new Chinese literature to Eastern European literature and to define its unique significance for the construction of modern Chinese literature Qur'ānic Hermeneutics in the 19th and 20th Century Georges Tamer,2023-12-18 The fourth volume of the groundbreaking Handbook of Qur nic Hermeneutics comprises 29 chapters dealing with the hermeneutical approach to the Qur n by Muslim authors of the 19th and 20th centuries These authors had to deal with the changes and influences of modernity on Muslim society Scientific progress and related developments in the natural sciences and humanities posed new questions and challenges to the traditional interpretation of the Qur'an The confrontation with the colonial period also shaped the way of thinking of some of these authors and their hermeneutical work This led them to a search for identity and a reassessment of their own traditions and beliefs Authors in this volume reflect on these historical experiences in their interpretation of the Qur'an The hermeneutical approaches to the Qur'an in this volume are thus closely linked to the social political and intellectual conditions in which the authors have done their work They represent a response to the challenges and changes of their time By critically engaging with modernity scientific progress and the colonial legacy these authors contributed to understanding and interpreting Islam in a new context
