Islands Dan Sleigh:

Islands Dan Sleigh, 2004 This novel of epic proportions from South Africa set between 1650 and 1710 covers the first fifty years of the Dutch colony at the Cape of Good Hope Beautifully rendered this is a world and a time never before dealt with in fiction a period when powerful colonizers took over the lands of Hottentot tribes exposing aborigines for the first time to Western eyes and Western ways Through the life stories of seven men all involved with and defined in one way or another by Pieterella the beautiful daughter of the first mixed marriage of the new colony we gain an understanding of the vast historical forces at work Teeming with characters rich with lived experience gripping in its unexpected turns Islands is a story of greed power war courage and international intrigue at once a meticulously researched portrait of the age and a great adventure story

Southern Imagining Elleke Boehmer, 2025-12-30 A new compass for global reading looking at the world from the far southern latitudes A northern viewpoint is most often the default while the south the far southern latitudes occupied by Australia New Zealand Argentina and southern Africa among others seems far away and ignorable In Southern Imagining Elleke Boehmer offers an alternative perspective using literary scientific and cultural material to explore how we look at the world from the south Reading she argues is a transformative means of reversing our usual planetary orientation and rearranging our perceptual geography Boehmer examines writing from across southern continents and islands considering how we imaginatively inhabit the farthest reaches of our planet Creators ranging from the Portuguese epic poet Luís de Camões to Samuel Taylor Coleridge Charles Darwin Katherine Mansfield Jorge Luis Borges and ancient Indigenous storytellers capture the edgy and austere experiences of the far south For Boehmer imaginative work stimulates and shapes our phenomenological understanding Southerners often see themselves as far away from where things count as outsiders internalising the wider global sense of their relative insignificance Conversely when northerners read or hear legends narratives songs and poems from the south it is as if they are located in the south at least for the duration of the reading or listening Boehmer suggests that the south tilted world map re-centred through song and story invites us to claim a more involved sense of belonging to our planet both its north and its south The writers of the south disrupt conventional ways of seeing and invite us to inhabit our globe differently

Writing Ocean Worlds Charne Lavery, 2022-01-01 This book explores the Indian Ocean world as it is produced by colonial and postcolonial fiction in English It analyses the work of three contemporary authors who write the Indian Ocean as a region and world Amitav Ghosh Abdulrazak Gurnah and Lindsey Collen alongside maritime imperial precursor Joseph Conrad If postcolonial literatures are sometimes read as national allegories this book presents an account of a different and significant strand of postcolonial fiction whose geography in contrast is coastal and transoceanic This work

imaginatively links east Africa south Asia and the Arab world via a network of south south connections that precedes and survives European imperialism The novels and stories provide a vivid storied sense of place on both a local and an oceanic scale and in so doing remap the world as having its centre in the ocean and the south
