

Competence, Awareness and Training

- Development, modification, verification, and validation of methods,
 - Analysis of results, statements of conformity, opinions, and interpretations,
 - Report, review and authorize results.
- 5.1.4 In support of resource management, awareness issues are addressed with new employees. They attend orientation training and made aware of:
- The relevant objectives,
 - Their contribution to an effective LMS,
 - The benefits of improved performance,
 - The implications of not conforming to requirements of the LMS,
 - The importance of meeting customer requirements and the need for ensuring customer satisfaction,
 - The importance of meeting regulatory/statutory requirements,
 - The quality policy.
- 5.1.5 Awareness training is repeated to all employees as supervisors or management or the LMS team identifies the need to retrain employees.
- 5.2 Human Resources staff maintains records of employee qualifications and documents the education, experience and skills required for each position and job. A job description form such as F-620-003 is used for this purpose.
- 5.2.1 In support of the management of resources, the level of knowledge needed to achieve conformity to requirements is considered.
- Knowledge is maintained and made available through planned training. Organizational knowledge can include information such as intellectual property and lessons learned.
 - When addressing changing needs and trends, the current knowledge is assessed to determine how to acquire new needed knowledge.
- 5.2.2 The LMS team leader is on alert for opportunities to improve organizational knowledge. An information center / library is maintained to collect and make available information that can enhance knowledge.
- 5.3 Each supervisor is responsible for identifying job specific training requirements for each position in their area and to maintain the employee training summaries on spreadsheet, form F-620-004 or in a training database.
- 5.3.1 Actions to acquire the necessary competence can include mentoring, provision of training, the reassignment of current employees, or the hiring or contracting of competent personnel.
- 5.4 When an employee is hired, changes positions or job requirements change, Human Resources obtains a resume or application from the employee to document their qualifications.
- 5.4.1 Employee qualifications are compared against the requirements for the position. If there are requirements that the employee's qualifications do not meet, human resources or the employee's supervisor identifies an action plan to provide the employee with the necessary qualifications.
