

A wooden gavel with a multi-tiered head and a smooth handle rests diagonally on a rectangular wooden block. In front of the block is a small wooden plaque with a black rectangular center containing the text 'ISLAMIC LAW' in white, bold, sans-serif capital letters. The entire scene is set against a dark background and is reflected on a polished wooden surface.

Modern Challenges to Islamic Law Shaheen Sardar Ali, 2016-10-06 The diversity of interpretation within Islamic legal traditions can be challenging for those working within this field of study Using a distinctly contextual approach this book addresses such challenges by combining theoretical perspectives on Islamic law with insight into how local understandings impact on the application of law in Muslim daily life Engaging with topics as diverse as Islamic constitutionalism Islamic finance human rights and internet fatawa Shaheen Sardar Ali provides an invaluable resource for scholars students and practitioners alike by exploring exactly what constitutes Islamic law in the contemporary world Useful examples case studies a glossary of terms and the author's personal reflections accompany traditional academic critique and together offer the reader a unique and discerning discussion of Islamic law in practice Issues in Islamic Law Mashood A.

Baderin, 2017-07-05 Islamic substantive law otherwise called branches of the law furu al fiqh covers the textual provisions and jurisprudential rulings relating to specific transactions under Islamic law It is to Islamic substantive law that the rules of Islamic legal theory are applied The relationship between Islamic legal theory and Islamic substantive law is metaphorically described by Islamic jurists as a process of cultivation istithmar whereby the qualified jurist mujtahid as the cultivator uses relevant rules of legal theory to harvest the substantive law on specific issues in form of fruits thamarat from the sources The articles in this volume engage critically with selected substantive issues in Islamic law including family law law of inheritance law of financial transactions criminal law judicial procedure and international law al siyar These areas of substantive law have been selected due to their contemporary relevance and application in different parts of the Muslim world today The volume features an introductory overview of the subject as well as a comprehensive bibliography to aid further research

Islamic Law and the Challenges of Modernity Yvonne Yazbeck Haddad, Barbara Freyer Stowasser, 2004-03-27 Since Europeans first colonized Arab lands in the 19th century they have been pressing to have the area's indigenous laws and legal systems accord with Western models Although most Arab states now have national codes of law that reflect Western influence fierce internal struggles continue over how to interpret Islamic law particularly in the areas of gender and family From different geographical and ideological points across the contemporary Arab world Haddad and Stowasser demonstrate the range of views on just what Islam's legal heritage in the region should be For either law or religion classes Islamic Law and the Challenges of Modernity provides the broad historical overview and particular cases needed to understand this contentious issue

Shariah Law Mohammad Hashim Kamali, 2017-07-06 Shariah law is a subject that is misunderstood and misrepresented by many in the West More than simply a system of law it is concerned with a set of values and rules that are essential to the understanding and practice of Islam In this volume Mohammad Hashim Kamali a world renowned expert on Shariah adopts a question and answer format to provide a clear introduction to its most salient aspects Extending from the sources of Shariah in the Qur'an hadith and the legal maxims of Islamic law to the discussion of issues such as freedom of religion gender equality and human rights Shariah Law Questions and Answers connects the theoretical aspects of the law with how it is applied in the world today At once scholarly and accessible it is sure to be a vital resource for students teachers and general readers addressing as it does a range of contemporary concerns including jihad democracy the environment genetic engineering human cloning euthanasia and abortion

Contemporary Issues in Islamic Law, Economics and Finance Flavia Cortelezzi, Alessandro Ferrari, 2022-08-12 This book explores how Islam can impact the structures and performance of firms financial institutions and capital markets across a range of countries and industries The Islamic finance industry represents an important reality not only because of the oil wealth of the Gulf states which have fueled demand for such financial services but also for an increased demand from a growing Muslim population in the West that aspires to express a full and all inclusive religious identity The increased demand for Muslim financial institutions has prompted Western non Islamic firms to begin providing these services in an interesting effort of acculturation to the new plural scenario By adopting a multidisciplinary approach which also takes into account the theological legal and geopolitical framework the book offers a comprehensive picture of Islamic financial tools contracts and business opportunities Drawing on different fields of expertise it deals with various themes such as the theological roots of Islamic economics and finance and its geopolitical impact the EU policy of cooperation with MENA and GCC countries the instruments of Islamic finance its legal principle and ability to become an instrument for enhancing business opportunities the functioning of Islamic banks the development of capital markets within a financial model influenced by religious constraints and finally the new relationships of this religious financial system with Western legal systems The book thus provides a complete and extensive overview of the practice of Islamic finance through the lenses offered by studies of economics and management Providing a careful analysis and an integrated framework of geo economic and political issues the book will be a valuable resource for academics researchers and professionals in International Business Entrepreneurship and Small Business Management Law and Religion and Intercultural Studies

ABOUT THE SERIES The Very Short Introductions series from Oxford University Press contains hundreds of titles in almost every subject area These pocket sized books are the perfect way to get ahead in a new subject quickly Our expert authors combine facts analysis perspective

new ideas and enthusiasm to make interesting and challenging topics highly readable Islamic Law in Malaysia Adnan Trakic, Hanifah Haydar Ali Tajuddin, 2021-03-16 This book examines the challenges of the implementation of Islamic law in Malaysia Malaysia is a pertinent jurisdiction to explore such challenges given its global focus colonial history and institutions and the intersection of the Shari ah and secularism multiculturalism The resultant implementation challenges are underpinned by three factors that make Malaysia an important jurisdiction for those interested in understanding the place of Islamic law in the global context First Malaysia is often considered as a model Islamic country Islamic law is a source of law in Malaysia The Islamic law legal system in Malaysia operates in parallel with a common law legal system The two systems of law generally are in harmony with one another Nevertheless occasional cross jurisdictional issues do arise and when they do the Malaysian judiciary has been quite efficient in solving them The Malaysian experience in maintaining such harmony between the two legal systems provides lessons for a number of countries facing such challenges Second Malaysia has a developed Shari ah court system that interprets and applies Islamic law predominantly based on the Shafi i school of thought While for the most part the approach has been successful there have been times when the implementation of the law has raised concerns as to the compatibility of Islamic law with modern principles of human rights and common law based values Third there have been cases where Islamic law implementation in Malaysia has gained global attention due to the potential for wider international implications To do justice to this complex area the book calls on scholars and practitioners who have the necessary expertise in Islamic law and its implementation As such this book provides lessons and direction for other countries that operate a dual system of secular and Islamic laws Issues in Islamic Law Abdul Haseeb Ansari, 2010

Modern Perspectives on Islamic Law E. Ann Black, Hossein Esmaeili, Nadirsyah Hosen, 2013-01-01 This book presents an invaluable contribution to the debate on the compatibility of Islam and modernity It is full of arguments and examples showing how Islam can be understood in line with modern life human rights democracy the rule of law civil society and pluralism The three authors come from different countries represent different gender perspectives and have a Shia a Sunni and a non Muslim background respectively which makes the book a unique source of information and inspiration Irmgard Marboe University of Vienna Austria This well informed book explains reflects on and analyses Islamic law not only in the classical legal tradition of Sharia but also its modern contemporary context The book explores the role of Islamic law in secular Western nations and reflects on the legal system of Islam in its classical context as applied in its traditional homeland of the Middle East and also in South East Asia Written by three leading scholars from three different backgrounds a Muslim in the Sunni tradition a Muslim in the Shia tradition and a non Muslim woman the book is not only unique but also enriched by differing insights into Islamic law Sir William Blair provides the foreword to a book which acknowledges that Islam continues to play a vital role not just in the Middle East but across the wider world the discussion on which the authors embark is a crucial one The book starts with an analysis of the nature of Islamic law its concepts meaning and sources as well as its development in different stages of Islamic history This is followed by accounts of how Islamic law is being practised today Key modern institutions are discussed such as the parliament judiciary dar al ifta political parties and other important organizations It continues by analysing some key concepts in our modern times nation state citizenship ummah dhimmah recognition of the status of certain non Muslims in Islamic states and the rule of law The book investigates how in recent times more and more fatwas are issued collectively rather than emanating from an individual scholar The authors then evaluate how Islamic law deals with family matters economics crime property and alternative dispute resolution Lastly the book revisits certain contemporary issues of debate in Islamic law such as the burqa halal food riba interest and apostasy Modern Perspectives on Islamic Law will become a standard scholarly text on Islamic law Its wide ranging coverage will appeal to researchers and students of Islamic law or Islamic studies in general Legal practitioners will also be interested in the comparative aspects of Islamic law presented in this book

Human Rights:

Universality and Diversity Eva Brems, 2021-10-18 Human rights are by definition universal Yet in a world characterized by enormous diversity there is no consensus about the implications of the universality of human rights In several regions of the world human rights conceptions are promoted that challenge the mainstream largely Western dominated discourse on this subject This volume offers an analysis of context specific human rights discourses from East Asia Sub-Saharan Africa and the Muslim World Rather than interpreting these as threats to universality the author examines how and to what extent the claims that are advanced can and should be accommodated in order to further the universality of human rights A theory of inclusive universality is developed and its implications are translated into legal techniques On the one hand there are flexibility techniques allowing for contextual diversity in the interpretation and application of human rights norms On the other hand giving credit to non Western views also implies that there should be room for transformation of those human rights norms
