Jodha Akbar History Story:

Historicizing Myths in Contemporary India Swapna Gopinath, Rutuja Deshmukh, 2023-02-03 This book examines cinematic practices in Bollywood as narratives that assist in shaping the imagination of the age especially in contemporary India It examines historical films released in India since the new millennium and analyses cinema as a reflection of the changing socio political and economic conditions at any given period The chapters in Historicizing Myths in Contemporary India Cinematic Representations and Nationalist Agendas in Hindi Cinemas also illuminate different perspectives on how cinematic historical representations follow political patterns and market compulsions giving precedence to a certain past over the other creating a narrative suited for the dominant narrative of the present From Mughal e Azam to Padmaavat and Bajirao Mastani to Raazi the chapters show how creating history out of myths validate hegemonic identities in a rapidly evolving Indian society The volume will be of interest to scholars of film and media studies literature and culture studies and South Asian studies

Bollywood Cinema Kaleidoscope Shoma A. Chatterji, 2020-01-31 This book is aimed at offering an insight into different aspects of Bollywood cinema that need highlighting now and for the future as an archival collection of concepts ideas realities and ideologies Bollywood Cinema represents reflects deflects from and critiques as well

South Asian Transnationalisms Babli Sinha, 2014-02-25 South Asian Transnationalisms explores encounters in twentieth century South Asia beyond the conventional categories of center and periphery colonizer and colonized Considering the cultural and political exchanges between artists and intellectuals of South Asia with counterparts in the United States continental Europe the Caribbean and East Asia the contributors interrogate the relationships between identity and agency language and space race and empire nation and ethnicity and diaspora and nationality This book deploys transnational syntaxes such as cinema dance and literature to reflect on social technological and political change Conceiving of the transnational as neither liberatory nor necessarily hegemonic the authors seek to explore the contradictions opportunities disjunctures and exclusions of the vexed experience of globalization in South Asia This book was published as a special issue of South Asian History and Culture
