THE FUTURE OF META ANALYSIS The ASEAN Regional Security Partnership Angela Pennisi di Floristella, 2015-08-25

ASEAN's role as a security provider remains largely a matter of scholarly debate Through the lens of the concept of regional security partnership this book uncovers a more nuanced understanding of ASEAN capacity highlighting both its merits and fragilities in coping with traditional and emerging security problems Historical Dictionary of International Relations

Peter Lamb, Fiona Robertson-Snape, 2017-03-21 The Historical Dictionary of International Relations is a general guide to the theory and practice of the relations between states and between states and other actors on the world stage It introduces readers to the real world operations of international relations and is thus concerned with the actual relations between states organizations groups and people It also offers introductory information about the various theories old and new that help explain these relations why they happen and the possible alternatives that might be available now or in the future Moreover some of the key thinkers of these theories are discussed The Historical Dictionary of International Relations contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 200 cross referenced entries on real world operations of international relations the actual relations between states organizations groups and people This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about International Relations

Neutrality in World History Leos Müller, 2019-01-10 Neutrality in World History provides a cogent synthesis of five hundred years of neutrality in global history Author Leos Müller argues that neutrality and neutral states such as Switzerland Sweden Belgium have played an important historical role in implementing the free trade paradigm shaping the laws of nations and humanitarianism and serving as key global centers of trade and finance Offering an intriguing alternative to dominant world history narratives which hinge primarily on the international relations and policies of empires and global powers Neutrality in World History provides students with a distinctive introduction to neutrality's place in world history

Foreign Policy Posture in Post-Apartheid South Africa Bhekithemba R. Mngomezulu, 2019-11-11 Foreign policy and domestic policy feed into each other To a large degree the latter informs the former This book demonstrates the relationship between the two paying particularly close attention to how South Africa envisioned its foreign policy during the negotiation process Importantly it spells out how South Africa's foreign policy has evolved since the early 1990s The critics of South Africa's foreign policy often question the motives behind the country's involvement in African and global affairs The contributions here demonstrate the complex nature of foreign policy making approaching the subject both from a broad theoretical perspective and specifically through empirical case studies The book will appeal to political scientists historians policy practitioners international relations specialists and government officials and their advisors as well as international relations theorists Naval War College Review, 2018 International Relations Keith L. Shimko, 2007-07 International Relations Perspectives and Controversies offers an innovative approach to this introductory course Each of the topical chapters covers an enduring and important debate in the field and examines how political actors or political thinkers explain and defend their different opinions This format offers the students the chance to understand important issues in International Relations as dynamic struggles over resources and power Each chapter is structured in four parts The first part provides a historical overview of the issue its origins evolution and current status The middle two sections of each chapter map out the opposing or contrasting points of view within the debate These debates are followed by an evaluation of the merits of each position and the scholarly and political assessment of the situation The goal of the text is to help students think systematically and critically about international affairs By distilling the discussion from a variety of viewpoints rather than simply providing articles by scholars who disagree the author highlights meaningful distinctions among differing political positions in a way that helps students understand not only the headlines from today and yesterday but more importantly those from tomorrow New The text has been reorganized to present the discussion of power politics Chapter 3 before the coverage of war and human nature Chapter 5 New Expanded coverage of IOs NGOs includes the European Union as related to security amidst anarchy Chapter 3 and the role of Amnesty International and other NGOs in human rights activism Chapter 10 New Expanded and updated coverage of the Clash of Civilizations in Chapter 12 is found both in the body of the chapter and in the Points of View readings at the end of the chapter New Updated Points of View readings which present primary sources such as official foreign policy statements government documents news stories debate transcripts and editorials expand on the chapter discussions New topics include Should We Practice Free Trade in Agriculture Does Foreign Aid Promote Development Can a Nuclear Iran be Deterred and Did 9 11 Reflect a Clash of Civilizations Marginal glossary allows students to access key terms without interrupting their reading End of chapter pedagogy includes bulleted chapter summaries a list of key terms with page numbers suggestions for further reading critical thinking questions endnotes and references to relevant web sites

International Politics Robert J. Art,Timothy W. Crawford,Robert Jervis,2023-02-06 International Politics Enduring Concepts and Contemporary Issues has been helping students understand the dynamics of international relations for fifty years Readings by leading scholars on essential topics illustrate fundamental debates and differing points of view for a comprehensive and engaging overview of the discipline while introducing readers to the major forces shaping the world today The fourteenth edition continues the book s cornerstone approach of combining foundational theoretical works with recent perspectives on current problems including a wealth of new material spread across each of the book s four parts The foundational material is organized to highlight the concept of anarchy in international relations and how matters of security power military force international political economy and strategic interactions influence patterns of cooperation and conflict In addition to a focus on basic security and strategic problems the politics of international commerce and challenges facing the global economy this edition also covers critical contemporary issues including human rights civil wars intervention and peacekeeping migration cyber conflict great power competition climate change energy transition nuclear weapons pandemic diplomacy and changes in the political shape of the system writ large Features 60 expertly edited readings from scholarly sources with 30 new to this edition A four part organization to cover anarchy the use of force international political economy and contemporary issues with an in depth editor introduction to each Part An entirely new chapter on the return of great power politics ever more important after Russia's invasion of Ukraine Learning objectives and discussion questions to focus student learning

War, Peace, and International Political Realism Keir Alexander Lieber, 2009 Gathering together essays by some of the most influential modern political philosophers and theorists War Peace and International Political Realism reveals the twentieth century roots of the realist tradition and demonstrates the enduring relevance of realist insights for current international relations scholarship and foreign affairs These essays all of which were published in The Review of Politics the majority during the 1940s and 1950s reflect four major tenets of the classical realist tradition an obligation to confront large and difficult questions about international politics a recognition of the fundamentally tragic nature of relations among humans and states a rejection of historical optimism and a belief in practical morality Keir A Lieber provides an excellent introduction emphasizing the importance of political realism as defined by the contributors Political realism is a distinguished intellectual tradition that illuminates the tragic aspects of the human condition This wide ranging collection of essays highlights the philosophical depth and topical breadth of postwar realist thought and illustrates both the continuities and divisions that continue to shape that tradition Readers will gain considerable insight from revisiting these classics or from discovering them for the first time Stephen Walt Robert and Renee Belfer Professor of International Affairs Harvard University This collection of outstanding essays by such intellectual giants as Hannah Arendt Herbert Butterfield George Kennan and Hans Morgenthau shows why conflict has long been at the heart of international politics and why there will never be world peace John J Mearsheimer R Wendell Harrison Distinguished Service Professor of Political Science University of Chicago This volume of essays that were originally published in The Review of Politics provides a unique perspective on the early history of both International Relations and political realism All of the contributors including luminaries such as Kennan Morgenthau and Thompson asked profound questions about the nature of man society and politics and should encourage readers to reconsider the purpose of contemporary political science By focusing on the work of some of the leading realist thinkers who were writing in the 1940s and 1950s Lieber clearly demonstrates that realism remains extremely relevant to understanding current debates on international politics and American foreign policy Brian C Schmidt Carleton University
