Con CD-ROM John Soars,Liz Soars,2009 The Routledge Handbook of Materials Development for Language Teaching Julie Norton,Heather Buchanan,2022-03-16 The Routledge Handbook of Materials Development for Language Teaching is the definitive resource for all working in this area of language and English language teaching With 34 chapters authored by leading figures from around the world the Handbook provides an historical overview of the development of language teaching materials critical discussion of core issues and an assessment of future directions The contributions represent a range of different international contexts providing insightful state of the art coverage of the field Structured in nine sections the Handbook covers changes and developments in language teaching materials controversial issues in materials development research and materials development materials for language learning and skills development materials evaluation and adaptation materials for specific contexts materials development and technology developing materials for publication professional development and materials writing Demonstrating throughout the dynamic relationship between theory and practice this accessible Handbook is essential reading for researchers scholars and students on MA programmes in ELT TESOL and applied linguistics Establishing Self-Access David Gardner,Lindsay Miller,1999-03-11 Establishing Self Access examines establishing maintaining and developing self access language learning SALL While much of it presents practical ideas dealing with issues related to SALL they are supported by references to relevant literature and research This link between theory and practice makes the debate about SALL accessible and makes this a useful resource for establishing and running self access learning facilities Its unique features include a typology of self access facilities a discussion about how to manage self access a step by step guide on evaluating self access a wide variety of practical suggestions for implementing self access in different contexts It is suitable for anyone concerned with self access from pre service teacher trainees to experienced teachers and from managers of dedicated self access centres to administrators concerned with financing self access facilities

Directions in Self-Access Language Learning David Gardner,Lindsay Miller,1994-07-01 This is a collection of articles on the topic of self access language learning by a variety of experienced educators currently active in the field of English language teaching in Hong Kong Separate chapters discuss a wide range of issues confronting ELT professionals in tertiary and secondary education and in the private sector Education and Society in the Middle East and North Africa Milton George, S. Sergio Saleem Scatolini, 2020-01-17 In the past the Middle East and the so called Muslim world used to be beacons of learning and critical thought Although historical variables such as conquest internal conflict and colonization demoted their position on the global stage changes are now in the offing In these interesting times a growing number of educators thinkers and visionaries are trying both to find and to generate new approaches to the past present and future of the region This book is a collection of articles which reflect on various aspects related to education and society in the Middle East and North Africa also known as the MENA region their peoples and educational processes It provides a platform for people to join the global conversation and to contribute to it with data which are relevant to regional concerns research and practices This is necessary because many of the theories and research findings which are still being used to understand the region were generated elsewhere and despite their lack of regional representativeness were generalized as the most trustworthy interpretive tools across the world Hence there is a need for the world to open up to the voices from the MENA region

Multifunctionality in English Zihan Yin, Elaine Vine, 2022-02-27 This edited volume provides detailed analyses of multifunctional forms in English and offers hands on approaches exemplifying relevant implications and useful applications to language and literacy educators in TESOL ESL EFL EAL and research students in applied linguistics and education The chapters cover The multifunctionality of utterances in spoken and multimodal corpora the multifunctionality of linguistic creativity in different genres multifunctional pronouns in hard and soft sciences and professional discourse in the university and secondary school contexts The volume also offers a comparison of the multifunctionality of verbs between ESL textbooks native written and spoken English corpora and between ESL and L1 university students in writing a particular genre comparisons of the multifunctionality of discourse markers between different registers and between L1 and L2 English speakers as well as multifunctional metadiscourse markers in different disciplines and paradigms With detailed analysis of authentic corpus data representing different varieties of English specialized use in different contexts and disciplines and practical teaching and learning applications the volume bridges theory and practice providing a creatively designed resource for students educators and researchers looking to understand multifunctional forms in English New Headway Liz
