Gandhi's Autobiographical Construction of

Selfhood Clara Neary, 2023-03-15 This book addresses the topics of autobiography self representation and status as a writer in Mahatma Gandhi's autobiographical work The Story of My Experiments with Truth 1927 1929 Gandhi remains an elusive figure despite the volumes of literature written on him in the seven decades since his assassination Scholars and biographers alike agree that no work on his life has portrayed him in totality Desai 2009 and although arguably the most popular figure of the first half of the twentieth century and one of the most eminent luminaries of our time Gandhi the individual remains as much an enigma as a person of endless fascination Murrell 2008 Yet there has been relatively little scholarly engagement with Gandhi's autobiography and published output has largely been concerned with mining the text for its biographical details with little concern for how Gandhi represents himself The author addresses this gap in the literature while also considering Gandhi as a writer This book provides a close reading of the linguistic structure of the text with particular focus upon Gandhi's self representation drawing on a cognitive stylistic framework for analysing linguistic representations of selfhood Emmott 2002 It will be of interest to stylisticians cognitive linguists discourse analysts and scholars in related fields such as Indian literature and postcolonial studies

The Bloomsbury Handbook of Postcolonial Print Cultures Toral Jatin Gajjarawala, Neelam Srivastava, Rajeswari Sunder Rajan, Jack Webb, 2023-08-10 The texts that make up postcolonial print cultures are often found outside the archival catalogue and in lesser examined repositories such as personal collections the streets or appendages to established collections This volume examines the published and unpublished writing magazines pamphlets paratexts advertisements cartoons radio and street art that serve as the intellectual forces behind opposition to colonial orders as meditations on the futures of embryonic nation states and as visions of new forms of equality The print cultures examined here are necessarily anti institutional they serve as a counterpoint to the colonial archive and relatedly to more traditional genres and text formats coming out of large scale publishers This means that much of the primary material analyzed in this book has not been scrutinized before Many of these print productions articulate collective liberation projects with origins in the grassroots They include debates around the shape of the postcolonial nation and the new state formation that necessarily draw on a diverse and contentious public sphere of opinion Their rhetoric ranges from the reformist to the revolutionary Reflecting the diversity indeed the disorderliness of postcolonial print cultures this book covers local national and transnational cultures from Asia Africa Europe and the Americas Its wide ranging essays offer a nuanced and taken together a definitive though that is not to say comprehensive or systematic study of a global phenomenon postcolonial print cultures as a distinct literary field The chapters recover the efforts of writers readers and publishers to produce a postcolonialism from below and thereby offer a range of fresh perspectives on the meaning and history of postcolonialism
