Carbone, Mariana Mastrángelo, 2019-12-11 Reflexión sobre el problema del imperialismo norteamericano y las relaciones que este estableció con América Latina desde final del siglo XIX hasta principios del XXI La primera parte reúne artículos que giran en torno a la exploración de los orígenes del expansionismo territorial estadounidense y el análisis de algunas de las respuestas que surgieron en América Latina al avance del coloso yanqui dando lugar a los movimientos críticos del llamado antimperialismo latinoamericano La segunda parte reúne una serie de estudios centrados en la complejidad que adoptó el imperialismo norteamericano en la segunda mitad del siglo XX. Se analiza la actuación imperialista de los Estados Unidos en Centroamérica y Sudamérica antes y después de la Segunda Guerra Mundial y se arroja luz sobre la compleja dinámica existente entre el refuerzo de la hegemonía estadounidense y la resistencia antimperialista de distintos actores regionales.

Inca Music Reimagined Vera Wolkowicz, 2022 In Inca Music Reimagined author Vera Wolkowicz argues that Peruvian Ecuadorian and Argentine composers in the early twentieth century consciously featured indigenous signifiers in their operas in order to produce a self-consciously Latin American art.

A Moment of Equality for Latin America? Barbara Fritz, Lena Lavinas, 2016-03-09 Unlike other regions around the world several Latin American countries have managed to reduce income inequality over the last decade. Higher growth rates and growing employment but also innovative wage policies and social programs have contributed to reducing poverty and narrow income disparities. Yet despite this progress nation states in the region demonstrate little capacity to substantially change their patterns of deeply rooted inequalities. Focusing on the limits and challenges of redistributive policies in Latin America this volume synthesizes and updates the discussion of inequality in the region introducing the perspective of global and transnational interdependencies. The book explores the extent to which redistributive policies have been interlinked with the provision and quality of public goods as well as with structural changes of the productive sector. Inspired by structuralist and neostructuralist thinking of Latin American economists such as Raúl Prebisch and Celso Furtado authors question the redistributive impact of the interplay of recent macroeconomic fiscal and social policies particularly under left and center-left administrations committed to greater equality. Bringing together experts in social fiscal and macroeconomic policies to investigate the interdependent and global character of inequalities this book will appeal to scholars of sociology economics development and politics with interests in Latin America inequality and public policy.
