History of the Rain Niall Williams, 2014-05-06 Longlisted for the Man Booker Prize Beautiful and enchanting a novel that weaves a love of literature into its own moving tale The Guardian History of the Rain Niall Williams, 2014-04-10
LONGLISTED FOR THE MAN BOOKER PRIZE 2014 By the author of Four Letters of Love the international bestseller now a major film starring Helena Bonham Carter and Pierce Brosnan A love letter to literature and storytelling Eimear McBride I am utterly obsessed with Niall Williams Ann Patchett In her attic room with the rain rushing down the windows Ruthie Swain is trying to find her father through stories Brought home after a collapse she lies surrounded by her father's library of three thousand nine hundred and fifty eight books But Ruthie's story and the story of the Swains before her is rooted not in these books pages but in the land fourteen rain sodden acres of earth useless for farming but teeming with stories From her bed Ruthie writes Ireland with its weather its rivers its lilt and its lows The stories she recounts bring back to life multiple generations buried in this soil and they might just bring her back into the world again too Extremely moving By the final chapter I was weeping Sunday Times Dazzling Paragraph after paragraph begs you to stop and reread it to relish the lilt of it in your inner ear The Times Beautiful and enchanting A novel that weaves a love of literature into its own moving tale Guardian Diary of a Tuscan Bookshop Alba Donati, 2023-05-30 National Bestseller Under the Tuscan Sun meets Diary of a Bookseller in this charming memoir by an Italian poet recounting her experience opening a bookshop in a village in Tuscany Alba Donati was used to her hectic life working as a book publicist in Italy a life that made her happy and allowed her to meet prominent international authors but she was ready to make a change One day she decided to return to Lucignana the small village in the Tuscan hills where she was born There she opened a tiny but enchanting bookshop in a lovely little cottage on a hill surrounded by gardens filled with roses and peonies With fewer than 200 year round residents Alba's shop seemed unlikely to succeed but it soon sparked the enthusiasm of book lovers both nearby and across Italy After surviving a fire and pandemic restrictions the Bookshop on the Hill soon became a refuge and destination for an ever growing community The locals took pride in the bookshop from Alba's centenarian mother to her childhood friends and the many volunteers who help in the day to day running of the shop And in short time it has become a literary destination with many devoted readers coming from afar to browse enjoy a cup of tea and find comfort in the knowledge that Alba will find the perfect read for them Alba's lifelong love of literature shines on every page of this unique and uplifting book Formatted as diary entries with delightful lists of the books sold at the shop each day this inspirational story celebrates reading as well as book lovers and booksellers the unsung heroes of the literary world Growing Up Communist and Jewish in Bondi Volume 1 John Docker, 2020-10-15 Ted Docker was an Australian of Irish descent who as a young man wanted to change the world joining first the Industrial Workers of the World and then helping form the Communist Party of Australia He was steadfastly loyal to the Soviet Union and by historical record a stern hard liner This is not the whole story Four Letters of

Love Niall Williams, 2015-11-03 Niall Williams's internationally bestselling delicate and graceful love story a magical work of fiction NYTBR now a major motion picture starring Pierce Brosnan Helena Bonham Carter and Gabriel Byrne Nicholas Coughlan is twelve years old when his father an Irish civil servant announces that God has commanded him to become a painter He abandons the family and a wife who is driven to despair Years later Nicholas's own civil service career is disrupted by tragic news his father has burned down the house with all his paintings and himself in it Isabel Gore is the daughter of a poet She's a passionate girl but her brother is the real prodigy a musician And yet this family too is struck by tragedy a seizure leaves the boy mute and unable to play Years later Isabel will continue to somehow blame herself casting off her own chances for happiness And then the day after Isabel's wedding to man she doesn't love Nicholas arrives on her western isle seeking his father's last surviving painting Suddenly the winds of fortune begin to shift sweeping both these souls up with them Nicholas and Isabel it seems were always meant to meet But it will take a series of chance events and perhaps a proper miracle to convince both to follow their hearts to where they're meant to be Elemental Encounters in the Contemporary Irish Novel Claire McGrail Johnston, 2019-12-19 The underlying premise of this book is that reading is touching Words leap out of their beds and pierce flesh like a knife Storytelling breathes within the dynamic of encounters with air fire earth and water permeated by emotion imagination and touch These ideas are contextualized within ancient community rituals social justice gatherings pedagogical practices and map making The four elements are retrieved from exile as imaginative corporeal and generative substances that operate within stories like medicine bundles Reading becomes a Deleuzian enterprise of health a challenging experience that grasps Paulo Freire's generative themes and is simultaneously thought provoking and valuable The capacious literary space capable of housing this sensual ferment is the novel More verb than noun the novel is an elemental bundle that engages with flesh in all its manifestations This book spotlights Irish novels by John Banville and Mary Morrissy exploring how they revitalise the elements with sensual social and tactile textures A Group-Analytic Exploration of the Sibling Matrix Val Parker, 2019-11-19 A Group Analytic Exploration of the Sibling Matrix How Siblings Shape our Lives offers a fresh approach to siblings recognising how these relationships are embedded in the framework of the family and how sibling experiences shape our lives influencing relationships with partners friends and colleagues and affecting how we take our place in groups and in society The book is divided into three parts Part One focuses on the sibling life cycle exploring how these relationships shift and change throughout life according to context and circumstances In Part Two Parker uses clinical examples to consider how therapists working with individuals and groups might expand their thinking to incorporate the sibling matrix The final part investigates how the sibling matrix manifests in organisational life and considers how we might develop mutuality and cooperation in our universal sibling matrix Drawing on the author's wealth of experience as a clinician the book incorporates compelling personal stories and clinical examples to bring to life the realities and nuances the good and bad the healthy and supportive and also the potentially damaging aspects of sibling relationships Accessibly written this is a rich and rewarding invitation to reflect on our own experience whether as clinicians researchers or as members of our own sibling matrix The Prodigal Evangelical Gerard Kelly, 2015-01-15 The Christian faith is about grace not law yet the evangelical church gets it wrong Gerard Kelly uses the story of the Prodigal Son to unpack the idea explaining as he does so why he is still willing to describe himself as part of the tribe This book explores in depth the story of the Prodigal Son in Luke 15 suggesting that this one story carries in concentrated form the DNA of the message of Jesus Exploring this parable and the wider biblical story arc in which it is set The Prodigal Evangelical suggests a reframing of the gospel narrative in four key words beauty brokenness forgiveness and invitation These four words describe the human condition we are beautiful broken forgiven and invited and create a telling of the Christian story that centres on the breadth and depth of the love of God This is the narrative at the heart of evangelical faith The Prodigal Evangelical embraces the death of Christ as essentially about forgiveness The cross is where it becomes possible both to be forgiven and to forgive this is the game changing force that creates the Christian movement In both dimensions the forgiveness offered is unilateral The Prodigal Evangelical leads directly to Gerard s personal experience of the cross as a life changing encounter

Time of the Child Niall Williams, 2024-11-19 The writing in this book is lyrical a beautiful book that you will love Good Morning America s 1 Favorite Book of the Year I am utterly obsessed with Niall Williams Ann Patchett New York Times bestselling author of Tom Lake Made me laugh out loud and remember how to love Margaret Renkl The New York Times From the author of This Is Happiness a compassionate life affirming novel about the Christmas season that transforms the small Irish town of Faha Doctor Jack Troy was born and raised in Faha but his responsibilities for the sick and his care for the dying mean he has always been set apart from the town His eldest daughter Ronnie has grown up in her father s shadow and remains there having missed one chance at love and passed up another offer of marriage from an unsuitable man But in the Advent season of 1962 as the town readies itself for Christmas Ronnie and Doctor Troy s lives are turned upside down when a baby is left in their care As the winter passes father and daughter s lives the understanding of their family and their role in their community are changed forever Set over the course of one December in the same village as Williams beloved This Is Happiness Time of the Child is a tender return to Faha for readers who know its charms and a heartwarming welcome to new readers entering for the very first time Literary Prizes and Cultural Transfer Petra Broomans, Mathijs Sanders, Jeanette den Toonder, Elise Bijl, 2022-02-05 Literary Prizes and Cultural Transfer addresses the multilevel nature of literary and translation prizes with the aim of expanding our knowledge about them as an international and transnational phenomenon The contributions to this book analyse the social institutional and ideological functions of such prizes This volume not only looks at famous prizes and celebrities but also lesser known prizes in more peripheral language areas and regions with a special focus on cultural transmitters and their networks which play a decisive role in the award industry Cultural transfer and translations are at the heart of this book and this approach adds a new dimension to the study of literary and translation prizes The contributions reveal the diverse ways in which a cultural transfer approach enhances the study of literary prizes presenting the state of the art regarding recent developments in the field Articles with a broader scope discuss definitions concepts and methods while other contributions deal with specific case studies A variety of theoretical and methodological approaches are explored applying field theory network analysis comparative literature and cultural transfer studies By providing multiple perspectives on the literary prize this volume aims to contribute to our knowledge and understanding of this intriguing phenomenon

This Is Happiness Niall Williams, 2019-12-03 Niall Williams's new novel Time of the Child is available now NAMED A BEST BOOK OF THE YEAR BY THE WASHINGTON POST and REAL SIMPLE A profound and enchanting new novel from Booker Prize longlisted author Niall Williams about the loves of our lives and the joys of reminiscing You don't see rain stop but you sense it You sense something has changed in the frequency you've been living and you hear the quietness you thought was silence get quieter still and you raise your head so your eyes can make sense of what your ears have already told you which at first is only something has changed The rain is stopping Nobody in the small forgotten village of Faha remembers when it started rain on the western seaboard was a condition of living Now just as Father Coffey proclaims the coming of electricity it is stopping Seventeen year old Noel Crowe is standing outside his grandparents house shortly after the rain has stopped when he encounters Christy for the first time Though he can't explain it Noel knows right then something has changed This is the story of all that was to follow Christy's long lost love and why he had come to Faha Noel's own experiences falling in and out of love and the endlessly postponed arrival of electricity a development that once complete would leave behind a world that had not changed for centuries Niall Williams latest novel is an intricately observed portrait of a community its idiosyncrasies and its traditions its paradoxes and its inanities its failures and its triumphs Luminous and otherworldly and yet anchored with deep running roots into the earthy and the everyday This Is Happiness is about stories as the very stuff of life the ways they make the texture and matter of our world and the ways they write and rewrite us

In Kiltumper Niall Williams, Christine Breen, 2021-08-31 From the authors of This Is Happiness and Her Name Is Rose a memoir of life in rural Ireland and a meditation on the power beauty and importance of the natural world 35 years ago when they were in their twenties Niall Williams and Christine Breen made the impulsive decision to leave their lives in New York City and move to Christine's ancestral home in the town of Kiltumper in rural Ireland In the decades that followed the pair dedicated themselves to writing gardening and living a life that followed the rhythms of the earth In 2019 with Christine in the final stages of recovery from cancer and the land itself threatened by the arrival of turbines just one farm over Niall and Christine decided to document a year of living in their garden and in their small corner of a rapidly changing world Proceeding month by month through the year and with beautiful seasonal illustrations this is the story of a garden in all its many splendors and a couple who have made their life observing its wonders
