Hitler Youth:

Hitler Youth, 1922-1945 Jean-Denis G.G. Lepage, 2009-03-23 During the Nazi regime's swift rise to power no single target of nazification took higher priority than Germany's young people. Well aware that the Nazi party could thrive only through the support of future generations Hitler instituted a youth movement the Hitler Jugend Hitler Youth which indoctrinated the easily malleable students of Germany's schools and universities. Along with its female counterpart the Bund deutscher Mädel League of German Girls the Hitler Youth produced many thousands of young Germans who were deeply and fanatically imbued with the Nazi racist ideology. This heavily illustrated book outlines the history and development of the Hitler Youth from its origins in 1922 until it was disbanded by the allied powers in 1945. A Hitler Youth in Poland Jost Hermand, 1997 Between 1933 and 1945 more than three million children between the ages of seven and sixteen were taken from their homes and sent to Hitler Youth paramilitary camps to be toughened up and taught how to be obedient Germans. Separated from their families these children often endured abuse by the adults in charge. This mass phenomenon that affected a whole generation of Germans remains almost undocumented. In this memoir Jost Hermand a German cultural critic and historian who spent much of his youth in five different camps writes about his experiences during this period. Hermand also gives background into the camp's creation and development. Hitler Youth Brenda Ralph Lewis, 2019-07-09 Between 1933 and 1945 most German children were members of the Hitler Youth. Exploring its development organisation education and indoctrination this book also looks at its combat role in World War II. Hitler Youth is an expertly written accessible account of the indoctrination of a generation of Germans. The Hitler Youth Alexa Dvorson, 1998-12-15 Describes how many young Germans were drawn into the Nazi movement and how Germany came more and more under the total control of Hitler and the Nazis. Hitler Youth Hannsjoachim Wolfgang Koch, 1972 Hitler Youth Michael H. Kater, 2009-06-30 In modern times the recruitment of children into a political organization and ideology reached its boldest embodiment in the Hitler Youth founded in 1933 soon after the Nazi Party assumed power in Germany. Determining that by age ten children's minds could be turned from play to politics the regime inducted nearly all German juveniles between the ages of ten and eighteen into its state run organization. The result was a potent tool for bending young minds and hearts to the will of Adolf Hitler. Baldur von Schirach headed a strict chain of command whose goal was to shift the adolescents sense of obedience from home and school to the racially defined Volk and the Third Reich. Luring boys and girls into Hitler Youth ranks by offering them status uniforms and weekend hikes the Nazis turned campgrounds into premilitary training sites air guns into machine guns sing alongs into marching drills instruction into indoctrination and children into Nazis. A few resisted for personal or political reasons but the overwhelming majority enlisted. Drawing on original reports letters diaries and memoirs Michael H Kater traces the history of the Hitler Youth examining the means degree and impact of conversion and the subsequent fate of young recruits. Millions of Hitler Youth joined the armed forces thousands gleefully participated in the subjugation of foreign peoples and the obliteration of racial aliens Although young they committed crimes against humanity for which they cannot escape judgment Their story stands as a harsh reminder of the moral bankruptcy of regimes that make children complicit in crimes of the state

The Hitler Youth H. W. Koch,2000-08-08 H W Koch himself a former Hitler Youth brings a unique sensitivity and perspective to the history of one of the most fascinating vehicles for Nazi thought and propaganda He traces the Hitler Youth movement from its antecedents in nineteenth century German romanticism and pre 1914 youth culture through the World War I radicalization of German youth to its ultimate exploitation by the Nazi party

The Hitler Youth Julian Flanders,2024-09-01 The Hitler Youth was founded in 1922 as the youth organisation of the German Nazi Party in Germany After Hitler became Chancellor in 1933 the organisation gained importance as a route to indoctrinating German youth with the ideals espoused by the Nazis As war approached it became partially a paramilitary organisation and as war broke out and Germany came under greater pressure many very young boys saw military action fighting and dying for the country Featuring contemporary photographs The Hitler Youth tells the story of the origins of the movement in more innocent aims and how its aims morphed over time to become a powerful way to disseminate Nazi ideas to an undiscerning audience

Hitler's Children Gerhard Rempel,2015-07-15 Eighty two percent of German boys and girls between the ages of ten and eighteen belonged to Hitlerjugend Hitler Youth or one of its affiliates by the time membership became fully compulsory in 1939 These adolescents were recognized by the SS an exclusive cadre of Nazi zealots as a source of future recruits to its own elite ranks which were made up largely of men under the age of thirty In this book Gerhard Rempel examines the special relationship that developed between these two most youthful and dynamic branches of the National Socialist movement and concludes that the coalition gave nazism much of its passionate energy and contributed greatly to its initial political and military success Rempel center his analysis of the HJ SS relationship on two branches of the Hitler Youth The first of these the Patrol Service was established as a juvenile police force to pursue ideological and social deviants political opponents and non conformists within the HJ and among German youth at large Under SS influence however membership in the organization became a preliminary apprenticeship for boys who would go on to be agents and soldiers in such SS controlled units as the Gestapo and Death s Head Formations The second the Land Service was created by HJ to encourage a return to farm living But this battle to reverse the flight from the land took on military significance as the SS sought to use the Land Service to create defense peasants who would provide a reliable food supply while defending the Fatherland The transformation of the Patrol and Land services like that of the HJ generally served SS ends at the same time that it secured for the Nazi regime the practical and ideological support of Germany s youth By fostering in the Hitler Youth as national community of the young the SS believed it could convert the popular movement of nazism into a protomilitary program to produce ideologically pure and committed soldiers and leaders who would keep the movement young and vital
