My Way Home Sue Varley, 2023-12-04 For millennia humans have grappled with the mystery of what happens after death What becomes of our essence Do we extinguish completely when our physical bodies cease to exist or is there something beyond the physical a soul that never dies Sue Varley shares her experiences with the spiritual world in her memoir My Way Home From childhood Sue saw and felt things that were otherwise considered outside the realm of possibility These paranormal events occurring in her life pushed her forward on a spiritual journey This journey eventually led her to become an intuitive reader a medium and a Reiki practitioner As Sue opened her heart mind and spirit to the metaphysical world she gained a clearer understanding of our physical world We all hope that when our loved ones die there is a better existence out there for them Sue's many experiences show proof of life after death and that the veil between these two worlds is thinner and more accessible than we could ever imagine Her life's path helps to ease our concerns about where our loved ones go and what we can expect when it is our time to return Home

The Films of Clint Eastwood Matt Wanat, Leonard Engel, 2018-05-15 The indefatigable Clint Eastwood the great old man of American film is still controversial after all these years Many of the critical essays in this collection focus on Eastwood's 2014 American Sniper a particularly controversial film and a devastating personal account of the horrors of war Additional essays within the collection address his films that deserve more recognition than they have received to date The chapters vary by topic and identify themes ranging from aging race and gender to uses of Western conventions and myth to the subtleties of quieter themes and stylistic choices in Eastwood's body of cinematic work As a collection these essays show that none of these themes account for Eastwood's entire vision which is multifaceted and often contradictory dramatizing complex issues in powerful character driven narratives
