History Of Modern Art Arnason 6th Edition:

Conceptual Revolutions in Twentieth-Century Art David W. Galenson, 2009-09-14 From Picasso's Cubism and Duchamp's readymades to Warhol's silkscreens and Smithson's earthworks the art of the twentieth century broke completely with earlier artistic traditions A basic change in the market for advanced art produced a heightened demand for innovation and young conceptual innovators from Picasso and Duchamp to Rauschenberg and Warhol to Cindy Sherman and Damien Hirst responded not only by creating dozens of new forms of art but also by behaving in ways that would have been incomprehensible to their predecessors Conceptual Revolutions in Twentieth Century Art presents the first systematic analysis of the reasons for this discontinuity David W Galenson whose earlier research has changed our understanding of creativity combines social scientific methods with qualitative analysis to produce a fundamentally new interpretation of modern art that will give readers a far deeper appreciation of the art of the past century and of today than is available elsewhere

ReVisioning James Romaine, Linda Stratford, 2014-05-20 ReVisioning Critical Methods of Seeing Christianity in the History of Art examines the application of art historical methods to the history of Christianity and art As methods of art history have become more interdisciplinary there has been a notable emergence of discussions of religion in art history as well as related fields such as visual culture and theology This book represents the first critical examination of scholarly methodologies applied to the study of Christian subjects themes and contexts in art ReVisioning contains original work from a range of scholars each of whom has addressed the question in regard to a well known work of art or body of work How have particular methods of art history been applied and with what effect The study moves from the third century to the present providing extensive treatment and analysis of art historical methods applied to the history of Christianity and art

Cubism Emily Braun, Rebecca A. Rabinow, 2014-10-09 This beautifully illustrated volume tells the story of Cubism through twenty two essays that explore the most significant private holding of Cubist art in the world today the Leonard A. Lauder Collection now a promised gift to The Metropolitan Museum of Art The eighty works featured in this volume by Georges Braque Juan Gris Fernand Leger and Pablo Picasso are among the most important and visually arresting in the movement's history These masterpieces critical to the development of Cubism include such groundbreaking paintings as Braque's Trees at L'Estaque considered one of the very first Cubist pictures Picasso's Still Life with Fan Leger's Ind pendant one of the first to introduce typography Gris's noirish uncanny The Man at the Caf one of his most celebrated collages and Leger's uniquely ambitious Composition The Typographer Written by renowned experts on this subject the essays trace the evolution of Cubism from its origins in the still lifes portraits and collages of Braque and Picasso through the precisely delineated compositions by Gris that prefigure the Synthetic Cubism of the war years to Leger's distinctive intersections of spherical cylindrical and cubic forms that evoke the syncopated rhythms of modern life Also included are a fascinating interview in which Leonard Lauder discusses his approach to collecting an investigative essay on the information gleaned from the backs of the works themselves and an authoritative catalogue that further establishes the lives of these magnificent objects A publication to place alongside the great histories of Modernism this comprehensive book will stand as the resource for understanding Cubism for many years to come History of Modern Art H.
