Getting Evidence into Education Stephen Gorard,2020-03-31 Worldwide there has been considerable progress in the quality of research evidence generated for use in education but not the equivalent growth in knowledge of how best to get this evidence into actual use Yet with far reaching implications all of education is damaged when persuasive but poor quality evidence has widespread influence or good research lies unused Focused on the work of the Durham University Evidence Centre for Education Getting Evidence into Education addresses this problem examining what can be done to improve the take up of suitable research evidence and inform the public service of education Containing a variety of case studies from evidence based policies for early childhood education in Brazil to the use of evidence on contextualized admissions to Scottish universities the volume explores a variety of different ways to approach the problem addressing the questions What is the existing evidence on different approaches to getting research evidence into use What are the factors which influence the uptake of high quality research evidence by policy or practice Which are the most effective pathways for evidence into use in particular contexts Considering both the practical and ethical implications the book builds towards key recommendations for the research community practitioner bodies and policy makers and advisors directing them on how to communicate better with each other for the benefit of everyone

Alleviating the Educational Impact of Adverse Childhood Experiences R. Martin Reardon,Jack Leonard,2020-05-01 Recent crises whether policy induced e g family separation at the Mexico U S border or natural disaster related e g hurricanes in Florida and North Carolina and wildfires in California have galvanized the attention of the U S and international public on the plight of children who endure these traumatic events The sheer enormity of such wrenching events tend to overshadow the trauma endured by many children whose everyday life circumstances fall short of affording them a safe stable and nurturing environment At the national level three rounds of data collection spanning January 2008 through April 2014 constituted the National Survey of Children s Exposure to Violence NatSCEV that according to Finkelhor Turner Shattuck and Hamblly 2013 in reporting on the 2011 round assessed a wide range of childhood victimizations pp 614 615 Among many other findings Finkelhor et al concluded that overall 57.7% of the children and youth had experienced or witnessed at least 1 to 5 aggregate exposures assaults and bullying sexual victimization maltreatment by a caregiver property victimization or witnessing victimization in the year before this survey p 619 According to the recent re-visiting of NatSCEV II by Turner et al 2017 almost 1 in 4 children and adolescents ages 5-15 in the United States lived in family environments with only modest levels of safety stability and nurturance while about 1 in 15 had consistently low levels across multiple domains p 8 Adverse childhood events ACEs have both immediate and long term impacts on children s health and well-being Banyard Hamblly Bowen Jarrett Stahl Forrester Walker Walsh 2015 Children do not shed their entanglement with ACEs at the schoolroom door To highlight just one study Jimenez Wade Lin Morrow Reichman 2016 conducted a secondary analysis of a national urban birth cohort and found that experiencing ACEs in early childhood was associated with below average teacher reported academic and literacy skills and more behavior problems in kindergarten p 1

Childhood, Learning & Everyday Life in Three Asia-Pacific Cities I-Fang Lee, Sue Saltmarsh, Nicola Yelland, 2023-04-17 This book introduces findings from an international cross-cultural and interdisciplinary study of children s everyday experiences of growing up and going to school in the context of the three global cities of Hong Kong Singapore and Melbourne It takes the premise that children s learning and orientations to educational success are shaped by everyday cultural practices at home and at school by policy contexts that both produce and respond to educational and cultural norms and by individual and familial desires and aspirations Drawing on research conducted with primary school-aged children in Year 4 the book considers how day-to-day routines such as going to school engaging in extra-curricular activities outside of school and spending time at home with family intersect with the broader milieus of education policy ideals in a changing and interconnected world Through a combination of visual methodologies surveys ethnographic observations in schools classrooms and cityscapes re-enactments of everyday activities with children at home and sociological education policy analysis this book shows both the richness of children s everyday lives and learning in global cities as well as exploring questions that pose challenges to educational and social norms

The Engaged Health Sciences Library Liaison Lindsay Alcock, Kelly Thormodson, 2020-05-15 Selected as a 2025 Doody s Core Title Liaison roles are generally commonplace in medical and health sciences libraries as librarians strive to develop and enhance relationships and collaborations with clinicians and faculty While the liaison of the past acted primarily as the main contact between respective departments and the library providing a facilitative function e.g. arranging for instruction sessions inviting feedback on the collection providing updates on new programs and services etc today s liaison activities are more proactive and robust The Engaged Health Sciences Library Liaison features ten program descriptions that illustrate how the reach and scope of librarians in the medical healthcare arena has changed dramatically since the inception of liaison services The program outcomes described illustrate a direct impact on curriculum development address new information types with new access and preservation technologies expand stakeholder groups create research and teaching collaborations and enhance functional roles This authoritative book copublished by the Medical Library Association demonstrates that collaboration and communication the basic tenets of a liaison program breed innovative programs and services that are relevant current and valuable International Handbook on Education in Southeast Asia Lorraine Pe Symaco, Martin Hayden, 2021-12-23

This International Handbook provides a detailed account of the education systems of 11 Southeast Asian nations including Brunei Darussalam Cambodia Indonesia Lao People's Democratic Republic Malaysia Myanmar the Philippines Singapore Thailand Timor Leste and Vietnam It presents a systematic sector by sector explanation of how these national education systems deliver educational services and respond to national and international issues and challenges With 56 chapters the International Handbook is the region's most comprehensive educational reference source In the first of its chapters the editors introduce the regional context and draw attention to the distinctive characteristics of each of the 11 systems Southeast Asia representing 8.5% of the world's population is as dynamic as it is diverse The International Handbook charts progress and establishes a benchmark for documenting future developments It also provides a stepping off point for more detailed investigations of decision making processes and outcomes across the 11 national education systems Global Education Monitoring Report Global Education Monitoring Report Team, UNESCO, 2021-12-31 Non state actors role extends beyond provision of schooling to interventions at various education levels and influence spheres Alongside its review of progress towards SDG 4 including emerging evidence on the COVID 19 pandemic's impact the 2021 2 Global Education Monitoring Report urges governments to see all institutions students and teachers as part of a single system Standards information incentives and accountability should help governments protect respect and fulfil the right to education of all without turning their eyes away from privilege or exploitation Publicly funded education does not have to be publicly provided but disparity in education processes student outcomes and teacher working conditions must be addressed Efficiency and innovation rather than being commercial secrets should be diffused and practised by all To that end transparency and integrity in the public education policy process need to be maintained to block vested interests The report's rallying call Who chooses Who loses invites policymakers to question relationships with non state actors in terms of fundamental choices between equity and freedom of choice between encouraging initiative and setting standards between groups of varying means and needs between immediate commitments under SDG 4 and those to be progressively realized e.g. post secondary education and between education and other social sectors The Unlearning of School Attendance: Ideas for Change Carolyn Gentle-Genitty, Arya Ansari, Ineke Marshall, Michael Gottfried, 2024-04-10 This Research Topic on
