becoming but open ended and capable of great variation in practice In particular these journeys of the spirit focus on the retrospective movement undergone by a midlife or older woman as she is led by inner or outer forces to assess where she has come from and decipher a shape or pattern to her journey These journeys do not leave the body behind as they map new spiritual territory Rather they honor spirit s embrace of the natural world and relationships as well as its aspirations for evolving development and eternal existence The essays in Adventures of the Spirit employ a wide variety of critical lenses to chart these adventures including archetypal Sufi post colonial and feminist analysis archival research aboriginal life writing and trauma theory These studies bring a new understanding to women s adventure of age in both literary texts and in life innovate formulaic structures to tell a wide range of stories that reflect changing times The book ends with some considerations on recent changes in Bollywood cinema suggesting that despite globalization the future of Bollywood remains promising By presenting Bollywood cinema through an interdisciplinary lens the book reaches beyond film studies departments and will be useful for those teaching and studying Bollywood in English sociology anthropology Asian studies and cultural studies classes      What Stories are Thomas M. Leitch, 1986 A sophisticated and closely reasoned essay on narrative theory which begins by attacking the customary distinction between story narrated events and discourse narrating medium What Stories Are suggests an alternative definition of narrative based on its discursive properties and explores the implications of that definition for the traditional categories of narrative theory plot character and so on This book combines two main tendencies in the study of narrative over the last twenty years one toward the building of bigger and better structural systems the other toward the production of ever finer and more intricate interpretations of particular texts In accurately and fairmindedly presenting previous and alternative theories of narrative the author attains a striking degree of originality redefining the subject in new and significant ways What Stories Are is outstanding for the logic and integrity of its intellectual design and for the catholicity of its interests and tastes Leitch is impressively at home in the literature he treats and his formulation of the constitutive tension in narrative between teleological and discursive imperatives freshly articulates it and gives it a welcome and unwonted centrality      Catalog Trinidad State Junior College, 1994      The Spectator , 2005
