The Make-Up Girl Andrea Semple, 2014-02-06 Hi My name s Faith and I m living the London dream I work in a fabulous PR company have loads of thin glamorous friends but most of all I have a perfect handsome boyfriend He never wants to watch the football and he always thinks I am the most beautiful girl in the world The only problem is that he doesn t exist I made him up just like I made up my perfect life and my perfect job It s what I do I m a single lonely low paid make up girl and it s far too late to tell my family the depressing truth Except that my sister s just got engaged which means I ve finally run out of reasons why my family can t meet my man Hi My name s Faith and I have less than two months to turn my perfect fictional boyfriend into reality Wish me luck

Yogalands Paul Bramadat, 2025-04-08 Millions of people practise yoga attracted to the mat by its promise of physical and mental benefits social connection and spiritual nourishment Promoted as a way of healing the body and mind from wounds inflicted by the world modern yoga may be a critique of the social order an anti world to which practitioners escape Yet yoga can never free itself entirely from the compromises and contradictions of reality In Yogalands Paul Bramadat wrestles with his position as a skeptical scholar who is also a devoted yoga practitioner Drawing from his own experience and from conversations with hundreds of yoga teachers and students in the United States and Canada he seeks to understand what yoga means for people in the modern West In doing so he addresses issues that often sit beneath the surface in yogalands why yoga s religious dimensions are rarely mentioned in classes how the relationship between yoga and trauma might be reconsidered and how yoga seems to have survived debates around nationalism cultural appropriation and sexual misconduct Yogalands encourages practitioners and critics to be more curious about yoga For insiders this can deepen their practice and for observers this approach is an inspiring and unsettling model for engaging with other passionate commitments
