Thornton Wilder, Classical Reception, and American Literature Stephen J. Rojcewicz, Jr., 2021-11-25 This book delineates how Thornton Wilder (1897-1975), a learned playwright and novelist, embeds himself within the classical tradition, integrating Greek and Roman motifs with a wide range of sources to produce heart-breaking masterpieces such as Our Town and comedy sensations such as Dolly Levi. Through this study of archival sources and close reading, readers will understand Wilder's avant-garde staging and innovative time sequences not as a break with the past but as a response to the classics. The author traces the genesis of unforgettable characters like Dolly Levi in The Matchmaker, Emily Webb in Our Town, and George Antrobus in The Skin of Our Teeth. Vergil's expression "Here are the tears of the world and human matters touch the heart" haunts Wilder's oeuvre. Understanding Vergil's phrase as tears for the beauty of the world, Wilder utilizes scenes depicting the beauty of the world and the sorrow when individuals recognize this too late. Wilder exhorts us to observe lovingly, alert to the wonder of the everyday. This work will appeal to actors and directors, professors and students in classics and in American literature, those fascinated by modern drama and performance studies, and non-specialists, theatregoers and readers in the general public.

Before the Parade Passes By John Anthony Gilvey, 2005-11 During the Golden Age of the Broadway musical, few directors

choreographers could infuse a new musical with dance and movement in quite the way Gower Champion could. From his earliest Broadway success with Bye Bye Birdie to his triumphant and bittersweet valedictory 42nd Street musicals directed by Champion filled the proscenium with life. At their best they touched the heart and stirred the soul with a skillful blend of elegance and American showmanship. He began his career as one half of America's Youngest Dance Team with Jeanne Tyler and later teamed with his wife, dance partner and longtime collaborator Marge Champion. This romantic ballroom duo danced across America in the smartest clubs and onto the television screen performing story dances that captivated the country. They ultimately took their talent to Hollywood where they starred in the 1951 remake of Show Boat. Lovely to Look At and other films. But Broadway always called to Champion and in 1959 he was tapped to direct Bye Bye Birdie. The rest is history. In shows like Birdie, Carnival, Hello Dolly, I Do I Do, Sugar and 42nd Street luminaries such as Chita Rivera, Dick Van Dyke, Carol Channing, Mary Martin, Robert Preston, Tony Roberts, Robert Morse, Tammy Grimes and Jerry Orbach brought Champion's creative vision to life. Working with composers and writers like Jerry Herman, Michael Stewart, Charles Strouse, Lee Adams and Bob Merrill, he streamlined the musical, making it flow effortlessly with song and dance from start to finish. John Gilvey has spoken with many of the people who worked with Champion and in Before the Parade Passes By he tells the life story of this most American of Broadway musical director-choreographers from his early days dancing with Marge to his final days spent meticulously honing the visual magic of 42nd Street. Before the Parade Passes By is the life story of one man who personified the glory of the Broadway musical right up until the moment of his untimely death. When the curtain fell to thunderous applause on the opening night of 42nd Street, August 25, 1980, legendary impresario David Merrick came forward, silenced the audience and announced that Champion had died that morning. As eminent theatre critic Ethan Mordden has firmly put it, the Golden Age was over. Though the Golden Age of the Broadway musical is over, John Gilvey brings it to life again by telling the story of Gower Champion, one of its most passionate and creative legends.

Crumpled Trumpet Anthony Cherry, 2025-10-28 Anthony Cherry's career with the BBC has spanned more than forty years. He began as a clerk in the library before becoming a sound engineer and then producer. Crumpled Trumpet takes us from his experiences of working on national events like the Falklands War and the death of Diana, Princess of Wales, to the inside story of directing countless presenters, singers, musicians, and actors, including Hollywood star Dirk Bogarde, legendary actress Glenda Jackson, pop superstar Gary Barlow, and chat show king Sir Michael Parkinson. Leaving home at eighteen, Anthony arrived in Broadcasting House convinced he would be producing at The London Palladium by the end of the week; it took a little longer than that. This book follows his progress with an entertaining series of broadcasting adventures full of humour and insight. It features stars like Idina Menzel, Charles Dance, Brian Blessed, ABBA's Benny Andersson, and Björn Ulvæus, Andrew Lloyd Webber, Cameron Mackintosh, Priscilla Presley, Mark Gatiss, Gregory Porter, Kylie Minogue, Tom Jones, Gladys Knight, and Barry Manilow. It is a tribute to the art of radio and the people who make it.

Great North American Stage Directors Volume 4 Henry Bial, Chase Bringardner, 2024-01-25 George Abbott, Vinnette Carroll, and Harold Hal Prince were trailblazing figures who helped shape and define the Broadway musical over the course of the 20th century. Their careers expanded the boundaries of the genre, highlighting the critical role of the director in the creation of a new musical. As theatre history, the essays in this volume help to complicate and deepen the reader's understanding of the musical genre of Broadway and of the enduring legacies of these three pioneers. As lessons in theatrical direction, they illustrate the particular issues involved in directing musicals as well as the stakes of working commercially at the highest levels of the industry. The Great North American Stage Directors series provides an authoritative account of the art of directing in North America by examining the work of twenty-four major practitioners from the late 19th century to the present. Each of the eight volumes examines three directors and offers an overview of their practices, theoretical ideas, and contributions to modern theatre. The studies chart the life and work of each director, placing his or her achievement in the context of other important theatre practitioners and broader social history Written by a team of leading experts the series presents the genealogy of directing in North America while simultaneously chronicling crucial trends and championing contemporary interpretation
