Scripture and the Authority of God Nicholas Thomas Wright, 2005 This book approaches the question of the authority of scripture from a different angle It is after all God himself who possesses all authority and God's authority is not primarily about giving right answers to disputed questions but about his sovereign saving purposes being accomplished through Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit What might it mean for the Bible to be a vessel or channel of that powerful authority Asking the question this way round opens up new angles on many other issues the relation of scripture tradition and reason the place of experience the many sided problems of the use and abuse of the Bible in relation to personal and public life

BOOK JACKET Reading the Bible Missionally Michael Goheen, 2016-11-27 Academy of Parish Clergy's Top Ten Books for Parish Ministry Insights from a noteworthy convergence of top scholars in biblical studies and missiology Over the past half century it has become clear that mission is a central theme in the Bible's narrative and moreover is central to the very identity of the church This book significantly widens and deepens the emerging conversation on missional hermeneutics Essays from top biblical and missiological scholars discuss reading the Scriptures missionally using mission as a key interpretive lens Five introductory chapters probe various elements of a missional hermeneutic followed by sections on the Old and New Testaments that include chapters on two books from each to illustrate what a missional reading of them looks like Essays in two concluding sections draw out the implications of a missional reading of Scripture for preaching and for theological education
