Shia Islam In Colonial India Religion Community And Sectarianism:

Shi'a Islam in Colonial India Justin Jones, 2011-10-24 Interest in Shi'a Islam has increased greatly in recent years although Shi'ism in the Indian subcontinent has remained largely underexplored Focusing on the influential Shi'a minority of Lucknow and the United Provinces a region that was largely under Shi'a rule until 1856 this book traces the history of Indian Shi'ism through the colonial period toward independence in 1947 Drawing on a range of new sources including religious writing polemical literature and clerical biography it assesses seminal developments including the growth of Shi'a religious activism madrasa education missionary activity ritual innovation and the politicization of the Shi'a community As a consequence of these significant religious and social transformations a Shi'a sectarian identity developed that existed in separation from rather than in interaction with its Sunni counterparts In this way the painful birth of modern sectarianism was initiated the consequences of which are very much alive in South Asia today Shi'a Islam in Colonial India Justin Jones, 2012 This book traces the history of Indian Shi'ism through the colonial period toward Independence in 1947

Non-Shia Practices of Muḥarram in South Asia and the Diaspora Pushkar Sohoni, Torsten Tschacher, 2021-09-26 This book analyses engagements with non-Shia practices of Muḥarram celebrations in the past and present in South Asia and within a larger diaspora Breaking new ground by bringing together a variety of regional perspectives the Deccan the Punjab Singapore South Africa and Trinidad and Tobago and linguistic backgrounds Bhojpuri Gujarati Marathi Punjabi Tamil Urdu the chapters discuss the importance of Muḥarram celebrations in terms of their respective actors While in some cases these include an interrelationship with Shia Muslims and their traditions of mourning during Muḥarram other contributions address contexts in which Shias and even Muslims form only a minor component of the celebrations or even none at all Focusing on Muḥarram celebrations that are beyond the script provided by Shia Muḥarram practices this book opens up new perspectives on Muḥarram as a social practice widely shared by South Asians across regions The book will be a key resource to scholars and students of South Asian studies Asian religion in particular rituals and religious practices and Islamic studies but also engaging to non-academic readers interested in the practices of several regions Secularism, Islam and Education in India, 1830-1910 Robert Ivermsee, 2015-10-06 During the nineteenth century British officials in India decided that the education system should be exclusively secular Drawing on sources from public and private archives Ivermsee presents a study of British Muslim negotiations over the secularization of colonial Indian education and on the changing nature of secularism across space and time

Islam and Sectarian Violence in Pakistan Eamon Murphy, 2018-10-23 This book analyses the growth of sectarian based terrorist violence in Pakistan one of the Muslim majority states most affected by sectarian violence ever since it was established in 1947 Sectarian violence among Muslims has emerged as a major global security problem in recent years The author argues that the upsurge in sectarian violence in Pakistan particularly since the late 1970s has had less to do with theological differences between the various sects of Islam but is a consequence of the specific political social economic demographic and cultural changes that have taken place in Pakistan since it was established as an independent state A major theme of the book is the increasing violence extent and expressions of sectarian conflict which have emerged as new forms of sectarian terrorism The volume provides an in depth empirical case study which addresses some major theoretical questions raised by Critical Terrorism Studies researchers in respect of the links between religion and sectarian terrorism in Pakistan and more widely This book will be of much interest to students of critical terrorism studies Asian politics and history religious studies and International Relations in general Sovereign Anxiety Javed Iqbal Wani,2023-11-16 Studies sovereignty and law and argues that public order laws are an expression of sovereign anxiety Claiming Citizenship and Nation Aishwarya Pandit,2021-07-15 The book provides insight into the changing nature of Muslim politics and the ideas of citizenship in independent India It studies the electoral mobilization of minority groups across North India particularly in Uttar Pradesh where Muslims have been demographically dominant in various constituencies The volume discusses themes such as the making and unmaking of the Congress heartland and the threat of revival of Muslim communalism alongside issues of representation property language politics rehabilitation and citizenship politics of Waqf personal law and Hindu counter mobilization The author utilizes previously unused government and institutional files private archives interviews and oral resources to address questions central to Indian politics and society An important intervention this book will be useful for scholars and researchers of politics Indian history minority studies law political studies nationalism electoral politics partition studies political sociology sociology and South Asian Studies Sufi Women of South Asia Tahera Aftab,2022-05-16 In Sufi Women of South Asia Veiled Friends of God the first biographical compendium of hundred and forty one women from the eleventh to the twentieth century Tahera Aftab fills a serious gap in the existing scholarship regarding the historical presence of women in Islam and brings women to the centre of the expanding literature on Sufism The book s translated excerpts from the original Farsi and Urdu sources that were never put together create a much needed English language source base on Sufism and Muslim women The book questions the spurious religious and cultural traditions that patronise gender inequalities in Muslim societies and convincingly proves that these pious women were exemplars of Islamic piety who as true spiritual masters avoided its public display

Freedom in Captivity Radhika Gupta,2023-05-11 Ethnography of Shias living along frontiers of Kashmir negotiating belonging to India by calibrating transnational religious cultural ideas with nationalist ideologies Sunnis and Shi'a Laurence Louër,2020-02-04 A compelling history of the ancient schism that continues to divide the Islamic world When Muhammad died in 632 without a male heir Sunnis contended that the choice of a successor should fall to his closest companions but Shi'a believed that God had inspired the Prophet to appoint his cousin and son in law Ali as leader So began a schism that is nearly as old as Islam itself Laurence Louër tells the story of this ancient rivalry taking readers from the last days of Muhammad to the political and doctrinal clashes of Sunnis and Shi'a today In a sweeping historical narrative spanning the Islamic world Lou r shows how the Sunni Shi a divide was never just a dispute over succession at issue are questions about the very nature of Islamic political authority She challenges the widespread perception of Sunnis and Shi a as bitter enemies who are perpetually at war with each other demonstrating how they have coexisted peacefully at various periods throughout the history of Islam Lou r traces how sectarian tensions have been inflamed or calmed depending on the political contingencies of the moment whether to consolidate the rule of elites assert clerical control over the state or defy the powers that be Timely and provocative Sunnis and Shi a provides needed perspective on the historical roots of today s conflicts and reveals how both branches of Islam have influenced and emulated each other in unexpected ways This compelling and accessible book also examines the diverse regional contexts of the Sunni Shi a divide examining how it has shaped societies and politics in countries such as Iraq Pakistan Saudi Arabia Iran Yemen and Lebanon Routledge Handbook on Islam in Asia Chiara Formichi,2021-09-30 The Routledge Handbook on Islam in Asia offers both new and established scholarship on Muslim societies and religious practices across Asia from a variety of interdisciplinary angles with chapters covering South Central East and Southeast Asia as well as Africa Asia connections Presenting work grounded in archival literary and ethnographic inquiry contributors to this handbook lend their expertise to paint a picture of Islam as deeply connected to and influenced by Asia often by passing or reversing relationships of power and authority that have placed Arab Islam in a hierarchically superior position vis vis Asia This handbook is structured in four parts each representing an emergent area of inquiry Frames Authority and authorizing practices Muslim spatialities Imaginations of piety Dislodging ingrained assumptions that Asia is at the periphery of Islam and that Islam is at the periphery of Asia s cultural matrix this handbook sets an agenda against the center periphery dichotomy as well as the syncretism paradigm that has dominated conversations on Islam in Asia It thus demonstrates possibilities for new scholarly approaches to the study of Islam within the Asian context This ground breaking handbook is a valuable resource to students and scholars of Asian studies religious studies and cultural studies more broadly Routledge Handbook of Middle East Politics Larbi Sadiki,2020-03-31 Drawing on various perspectives and analysis the Handbook problematizes Middle East politics through an interdisciplinary prism seeking a melioristic account of the field Thematically organized the chapters address political social and historical questions by showcasing both theoretical and empirical insights all of which are represented in a style that ease readers into sophisticated induction in the Middle East It positions the didactic at the centre of inquiry Contributions by forty four scholars both veterans and newcomers rethink knowledge frames conceptual categories and fieldwork praxis Substantive themes include secularity and religion gender democracy authoritarianism and new borderline politics of the Middle East Like any field of knowledge the Middle East is constituted by texts authors and readers but also by the cultural spatial and temporal contexts within which diverse intellectual inflections help construct write speak academic meaning knowing and practice By denaturalizing notions of singularity of authorship or scholarship the Handbook plants a dialogic interplay animated by multi vocality multi modality and multi disciplinarity Targeting graduate students and young scholars of political and social sciences the Handbook is significant for understanding how the Middle East is written and re written read and re read epistemology methodology and for how it comes to exist ontology European Muslims and the Qur'an Gulnaz Sibgatullina, Gerard Wiegers, 2023-12-18 This edited volume aims to advance a Muslim centered perspective on the study of Islam in Europe To do so it brings together a range of case studies that illustrate how European Muslims engaged with their Sacred Scripture while being part of a Christian dominated social and political space The research presented in this volume seeks to analyse Muslims practices of translating interpreting and using the Qur'an as a sacred object and thus pursues three main research agendas Part I focuses on the issues of Muslim Christian relations in Europe and studies how these relations have engendered discursive connections between Muslim and Christian produced texts related to the study and interpretation of the Qur'an Part II aims to bring scholarly attention to the under represented cases of Muslim communities in Europe This part introduces new research on Polish Belarusian Daghestani Bosnian and Kazan Tatars and examines local traditions of producing vernacular Qur'ans and commodification of Qur'anic manuscripts The final section of the volume Part III contributes to filling in the gaps related to the theoretical and conceptual framing of Muslim translation activities The history of religious thought and practice in European history is in many ways still uncharted territory This book aims to contribute to a better understanding of the cultural history of the Qur'an and Muslim agency in interpreting transmitting and translating the Sacred Scripture Novel and Nation in the Muslim World Daniella Kuzmanovic, Elisabeth Özdalga, 2015-07-20 Exploring the relationship between fiction and nation formation in the Muslim world through 12 unique studies from Azerbaijan Libya Iran Algeria and Yemen amongst others this book shows how fiction reflects and relates the complex entanglements of nation religion and modernity in the process of political and cultural identity formation The Bengal Diaspora Claire Alexander, Joya Chatterji, Annu Jalais, 2015-11-06 India's partition in 1947 and the creation of Bangladesh in 1971 saw the displacement and resettling of millions of Muslims and Hindus resulting in profound transformations across the region A third of the region's population sought shelter across new borders almost all of them resettling in the Bengal delta itself A similar number were internally displaced while others moved to the Middle East North America and Europe Using a creative interdisciplinary approach combining historical sociological and anthropological approaches to migration and diaspora this book explores the experiences of Bengali Muslim migrants through this period of upheaval and transformation It draws on over 200 interviews conducted in Britain India and Bangladesh tracing migration and settlement within and from the Bengal delta region in the period after 1947 Focussing on migration and diaspora from below it teases out fascinating hidden migrant stories including those of women refugees and displaced people It reveals surprising similarities and important differences in the experience of Muslim migrants in widely different contexts and places whether in the towns and hamlets of Bengal delta or in the cities of Britain Counter posing accounts of the structures that frame migration with the textures of how migrants shape their own movement it examines what it means to make new homes in a context of diaspora The book is also unique in its focus on the experiences of those who stayed behind and in its analysis of ruptures in the migration process Importantly the book seeks to challenge crude attitudes to Muslim migrants which assume their cultural and religious homogeneity and to humanize contemporary discourses around global migration This ground breaking new research offers an essential contribution to the field of South Asian Studies Diaspora Studies and Society and Culture Studies

Sufism in Eighteenth-Century India Neda Saghaee, 2022-11-23 Sufism in Eighteenth Century India focuses on one particular treasure from surviving Persian manuscripts in India Nala'i Andalibi written by Muhammad Niri Andalibi 1759 a Naqshbandi Mujaddidi mystical thinker It explores the convergence and interrelation of the text with its context to find how Andalibi revisits the central role of the Prophet as the main protagonist in his allegorical love story with great attention to the circumstances of the Muslim community during the eighteenth century The present volume elucidates Andalibi's Sufism calling for a return to the pristine form of Islam and the idealization of the first Muslim community It considers his arqa'i Khali Muhammadiyya as a derivation of the arqa'i Muhammadiyya which had an important role in promoting Islam The book attempts to clarify and systematize all of the concepts which Andalibi employs within the framework of the Khali Muhammadiyya such as the state of the niri and the Khali Muhammad It addresses controversial topics in religion such as the struggles between Shi'a and Sunni Muslims and the controversies between Shuhada and Wujuda It illuminates two key personalities Ab Bakr aliddiq and Albi Abilib and two types of relationships the ma'iyya and ayniyya with the spirituality of the Prophet The book will be of interest to scholars and students interested in Islamic studies Islamic mysticism the intellectual history of Muslims in South Asia the history of the Mughal Empire Persian literature studies of manuscripts Islamic philosophy comparative studies of religions social studies anthropology and debates concerning the eighteenth century such as the transition from pre colonialism to colonialism and the origins of modernity in Islam

Practices of Islamic Preaching Ayşe Almıla Akca, Mona Feise-Nasr, Leonie Stenske, Aydın Süer, 2023-12-18 Preaching a practice composed of and accompanied by a myriad of different activities is an essential element of Muslim religious life both within and beyond mosques As such Islamic preaching is a common means of religious promulgation and knowledge transfer of pastoral guidance and uplift but also of communication between believers and as a source of negotiating religious normativity power relations and societal topics Given the centrality of preaching in Muslims religious life this collective volume presents contributions on various aspects of performance text space and materiality of Islamic preaching in history and present The interdisciplinary and transdisciplinary framework captures Islamic preaching as it unfolds in its social setting The volume aims at representing the inner Islamic diversity by depicting the practice of preaching as it came about in different times and geographical locations shedding light onto Friday gatherings and sermons utba and other forms of preaching e.g. wa'it during Ramadan at religious feasts and commemorations or on personal occasions such as weddings and funerals Therefore each chapter offers a different insight into the interwoven character of sermons contents the preacher him herself and the audience by emphasising the role of their bodily performance of the temporality and spatiality of preaching and of the objects and items involved Between Household and State Subah Dayal,2024-12-24 For decades scholars have examined the Mughal Empire South Asia s largest and most powerful pre colonial empire to measure the greatness of its political ideological and cultural institutions Between Household and State departs from dynastic narrations of the Mughal past to highlight the role of elite households and familial networks in shaping imperial power particularly in peninsular India the only region of the subcontinent never fully incorporated into the imperial realm Drawing upon rare documentary and literary materials in Persian and Urdu alongside the Dutch East India Company s archives the book takes us on a journey from military forts and regional courts in the Deccan to the weaving villages of the Coromandel Coast to examine how regional elite alliances feuds and material exchanges intersected with imperial institutions to create new forms of affinity belonging and social exclusion Between Household and State brings attention to the importance of ghar or home as an analytical framework for the creation of mobile forms of sovereignty that anchored the Mughal frontier across the variable geography of peninsular India in the seventeenth century Law and Muslim Political Thought in Late Colonial North India Adeel Hussain,2022 Muhammad Iqbal and Muhammad Ali Jinnah developed their crucial political ideas in the 1930s They used India to test out how law could be used to settle political conflicts how theological concepts could be politicized and how to speak to an increasingly hostile All India National Congress This book maps this development

Islamic Sermons and Public Piety in Bangladesh Max Stille,2020-05-14 Islamic sermon gatherings are a central form of public piety and public expression in contemporary Bangladesh Held since the 19th century waz mahfils became so popular that it is today possible to participate in them on a daily basis in many regions of the country Despite their significance in the rise of popular politics the sermons are often disregarded as Islamist propaganda and very little research is dedicated to them This book provides unprecedented access into these sermon gatherings Based on fieldwork and interviews Max Stille analyses an archive of several dozens of sermons He shows how popular preaching shapes roles and rules of what can be said imagined and felt Waz mahfils are a participatory practice of the labouring classes in which religious political and poetic consensus overlap In them Islamic tenets and morals are part of dramatic narrations vocal art and affective communication ranging from immersion and upheaval to laughter about political jokes and parody Suggesting new ways to interpret musical and performative poetics of Islamic speech this book calls for expanding conceptions of civic participation and public discourse and rethinking the role of the senses and religious aesthetics in Islam
