Migration and Language Education in Southern Europe Eleni Griva, Maria Moutzi, Marina Mattheoudakis, 2021-10-04 The entry of migrant populations to Europe and especially to countries of Southern Europe is expected to drastically change the make up of state school classes as learners of various ages ethnic backgrounds and mother tongues are going to co exist within the same educational setting In Greece in particular the landscape of education has already started changing as a significant number of immigrant students have joined mainstream classrooms This volume maps this new educational reality and its challenges as Greek teachers are required with very limited training and resources to address those students educational and socio emotional needs All chapters are authored by Greek researchers who are actively involved in the study of refugees and immigrants education their needs and their educational linguistic and political rights Despite the fact that education for immigrants and refugees has become the focus of much research on a global level the ongoing rapid rise of immigrant populations in Southern Europe has not been adequately researched This book consequently meets the need for further research and empirical studies in this field

Authenticity across Languages and Cultures Leo Will, Wolfgang Stadler, Irma Eloff, 2022-11-10 This volume centres around concepts of personal and cultural authenticity as they play out in various contexts of foreign language teaching and learning worldwide The chapters cover a wide range of contexts and disciplines including both theoretical and empirical work together they comprise both a rigorous analysis of authenticity in language teaching and a step away from notions of native speakerism and cultural essentialism with which it is often associated Written by a group of scholars working across several continents the chapters offer diverse perspectives regarding the role language plays in processes of personal growth learning development self actualisation and power dynamics The book addresses the theoretical and philosophical nature of authenticity while remaining grounded in the teaching and learning of languages with authenticity viewed as a practical concern that guides our actions and beliefs The book will be of interest to scholars researchers and students of authenticity as well as foreign language teachers interested in the theoretical underpinnings of their practice

Teaching and Learning English in the Digital Age Inez De Florio-Hansen, 2018-04-23 TEFL in the 21st century First of all teaching and learning English in the digital age means using digital tools in TEFL classrooms This introduction exemplifies how to implement them in a meaningful way in combination with reliable methods for additional practice oriented teaching and learning suggestions see <https://www.deflorio.de/blog> A further important aspect of digitization is teaching and learning about media Teachers have to create and deploy opportunities that allow students to develop a critical stance toward media in general and digital media in particular This introduction to TEFL shows that the rapidly increasing influences of digitization lead to more internationalized and globalized science based approaches to teaching and learning English In this perspective digitization offers an opportunity to rethink and reshape didactic concepts

Tessiture. Letterature e culture di lingua inglese nella didattica dei cultural studies Nicoletta Vallorani, 2010-10 Anglophone Literature in Second-Language Teacher Education Justin Quinn, Gabriela Kleckova, 2021-03-15 Anglophone Literature in Second Language Teacher Education proposes new ways that literature and more generally culture can be used to educate future teachers of English as a second language Arguing that the way literature is used in language teacher education can be transformed the book foregrounds transnational approaches and shows how these can be applied in literature and cultural instruction to encourage intercultural awareness in future language educators It draws on theoretical discussions from literary and cultural studies as well as applied linguistics and is an example how these cross discipline conversations can take place and thus help make Second language teacher education SLTE programs more responsive to the challenges faced by future English language teachers Written in the idiom of literary scholarship the book uses ideas of intercultural studies that have gained widespread support at research level yet have not affected literature cultural curricula in SLTE As the first interdisciplinary study to suggest how SLTE programs can respond with curricula this book will be of great interest for academics scholars and post graduate students in the fields of applied linguistics L2 and foreign language education teacher education and post graduate TESOL It has universal appeal addressing teaching faculty in any third level institution that prepares language teachers and includes literary studies in their curriculum as well as administrators in such organizations

Digital Textualities and Spaces in ELT Theresa Summer,Ralf Gießler,2025-03-31 The digital world opens up a vast number of spaces such as immersive virtual reality digital book corners and discourses marked by hashtags In this volume we argue that digital spaces and textualities should play a more central role in English language teaching and learning ELT emphasising their multimodal and interactive nature as a means of engaging with different layers of meaning in the target language Digital spaces function as contact zones where readers and writers communicate negotiate experiences and shape collective identities Within these spaces digital textualities create opportunities for competence development across various language related domains fostering a critical engagement with texts Bringing together theoretical insights conceptual developments and case studies this volume explores the potential of digital spaces and textualities for ELT while addressing their practical implications

Education as Enforcement Kenneth Saltman,David A. Gabbard,2010-09-13 The first volume to focus on the intersections of militarization corporations and education Education as Enforcement exposed the many ways schooling has become the means through which the expansion of global corporate power are enforced Since publication of the first edition these trends have increased to disturbing levels as a result of the extensive militarization of civil society the implosion of the neoconservative movement and the financial meltdown that radically called into question the basic assumptions undergirding neoliberal ideology An understanding of the enforcement of these corporate economic imperatives remains imperative to a critical discussion of related militarized trends in schools whether through accountability and standards school security or other discipline based reforms Education as Enforcement elaborates upon the central arguments of the first edition and updates readers on how recent events have reinforced their continued original relevance In addition to substantive updates to several original chapters this second edition includes a new foreword by Henry Giroux a new introduction and four new chapters that reveal the most contemporary expressions of the militarization and corporatization of education New topics covered in this collection include zero tolerance foreign and second language instruction in the post 9 11 context the rise of single sex classrooms and the intersection of the militarization and corporatization of schools under the Obama administration

Communities of Practice and English as a Lingua Franca Karolina Kalocsai,2013-12-18 This is a timely book on one of the most widely debated issues in applied linguistics what is the social and cultural significance of English as a lingua franca for the internationally mobile students of the 21st century in Central Europe Through an in depth analysis of social practices the book develops an exciting innovative multilingual approach to out of class language use and language learning that engages students in the co construction of identities Apart from scholars the book will appeal to policy makers and educators who are concerned with the internationalization of universities in Central Europe

English as a Lingua Franca in Teacher Education Telma Gimenez,Michele Salles El Kadri,Luciana Cabrini Simões Calvo,2017-11-07 A lingua franca perspective into English language teaching in Brazil has only recently take flight As an emerging economy the country faces enormous challenges when it comes to language education in schools where English has traditionally been taught as a foreign language This collection brings the perspectives of academics and language practitioners in their efforts to incorporate an ELF approach into teacher education thus offering a voice sorely missed in the international community interested in developing new approaches to English in a global world

Fostering Culture Through Film Elda Buonanno Foley,Patrizia Comello Perry,2016-05-11 The perceived lack of understanding of cultural diversity in the American learning community has led instructors to challenge assumptions and stereotypes while addressing misconceptions Teachers of foreign languages and cultural studies in particular feel the need to redesign curricula and lesson plans to better serve the learning community of the twenty first century The common starting point resides in the paradox that exists in today s connected world while global access to information makes learners aware of the infinite variety of cultural diversity it does not however make them critical thinkers For this reason there is opportunity to reshape critical thinking within a more global perspective while enhancing the tools to identify interpret and compare the different cultural models that learners encounter The book demonstrates the theories and practical applications by which instructors use contemporary film to provide insightful readings on diverse local communities communities that form the basis of global culture This collection of essays will serve as a pedagogical tool and resource offering methods and examples of a communicative approach to analyze and integrate cultural diversities similarities and problems in the second language curricula methods that expose students to different cultural models while scaffolding their critical approach to multiple layers of common and specific values This work will encourage a dialogue and long lasting conversation on methodologies and teaching strategies rethought reapplied and remolded to the new learning environments
