Human hostility is not the narrative of a selected few Since the fall of the grandparents of the human family Adam and Eve all humans have continued to participate in the reality of evil Accordingly the question is no longer whether evil will strike but rather when evil strikes how should humans particularly Christians respond to it This book offers a relevant and effective theology and ethics for addressing the issue of Christian response to violence in Nigeria and beyond It situates the whole gamut of the reign of human hostility in its various manifestations self interest and greed for power deception and social injustices governmental official corruption terrorism and so on It encourages humans to take seriously both the fact of God creating humans good and the fall serving as the gateway of evil into the human race It recognizes the complexity of human problems Yet it offers possibility for just peacemaking In spite of the horrific violence across the globe humans are still able to do tremendous good Thus the book recognizes the paradox of humanity humans are capable of doing tremendous good and equally capable of doing tremendous evil Becoming a 21st-Century Church J. Fred Lehr, 2017-10-03 Why are 80 percent of our congregations stagnant or dying There are a variety of reasons This book dives deeply into one of the main reasons the failure to adapt to the cultural changes of our day When the Reformation began 500 years ago it sparked a number of radical changes like worshipping in the vernacular rather than in Latin etc that shocked the church Over time many saw the merit of those changes and adapted In the very same way today major cultural changes are taking place Is the church open to understanding those changes And are congregations making the necessary effort to appropriately adapt to them without compromising our central message the Gospel of Jesus Christ This transformational manual addresses the cultural shifts and provides practical and experience based ideas to appropriately respond while keeping a strong emphasis on the Gospel of Jesus Are you ready to become a 21st century church Shift Mark E. Tidsworth,2015-10-06 Through deconstructing the large scale cultural shifts over the last 50 years Mark Tidsworth helps make sense of the current cultural context for churches in North America Then Tidsworth identifies and follows three hopeful shifts every church is called to make member identity to disciple identity attractional to missional church and consumer culture to sacred partnering

Imagining a New Church Jeffrey Kjellberg, 2019-09-13 If our church isn t a place of genuine inclusivity for the 21st century are we a 21st century church How do we define inclusive If the world is changing are we able to change with it What if this new church looks different than we think it should Jeffrey Kjellberg s IMAGINING A NEW CHURCH What if We re Asking the Wrong Questions opens the door to a conversation about who we have been who we are now and who we can be in the future In recent years we have experienced a decline in both membership and engagement and have struggled to sustain ourselves in a shifting and uncertain landscape We have always relied on our history as a church to both energize our present and direct our path forward But what if we don t just have a storied past but a new and exciting future Rather than relying on failing strategies strategies that have not turned our diminishing communities of faith around what if we work towards a new practice Through a series of self-examining questions Kjellberg leads the reader through a process of deep reflection and creative inspiration. He asks us to examine our preset beliefs about who we are and what we believe and explore a new way of being church. This is not easy work and Kjellberg encourages us to express the full range of our doubts, fears, and sorrows. But rather than mourning where we are now, what if the mystery of the future is what inspires our present? Can we find that new path forward without letting fear of loss block our way? Imagining A New Church challenges us to ask ourselves a new set of questions, freeing us from the need to recover to a place of imagining something new. We want our church and our faith to be both relevant and responsive to a changing and needful world. Our confounding present is just one stop on our pilgrimage into a hopeful future. This process of doing and undoing, making and unmaking, is challenging. But in our love for our church, we can find the strength to forge a new way, a new path. The future can be one of hope and creation rather than a time of sadness, darkness, and loss. Jeffrey Kjellberg's Imagining a New Church is a bright lantern on this journey.
